

LEBANON YOUTH BASKETBALL

Code of Conduct

Through submitting the membership application for my child, I have accepted the Terms and Conditions of membership whether I have actually read them or not. I am therefore subject to the LYB rules, and to the rules and regulations of the organizations to which the LYB belongs.

- My child plays basketball for his or her benefit, not mine.
- I will not give instructions to players -- that is the coach's role.
- I will never question the referee's judgment, integrity or honesty.
- I will support all efforts to eliminate verbal and physical abuse from the game of basketball.
- If I am upset by something, I will wait 24hrs before discussing the issue with the team coach and will do so in a private and constructive manner.
- I will not approach the Coach to talk about my child at the start of, during or immediately after a session or game.
- I will show respect for all players, coaches, officials and spectators at all times
- I will teach my child that doing one's best is as important as winning, so that my child will never feel defeated by the outcome of a game.
- I will never take part in a practice, game, or team event while under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol.
- I will make my child feel like a winner by offering praise for competing fairly and doing their best.
- I will encourage my child to play by the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence.
- Children learn by example. I will applaud good plays by both my child's team and their opponents.
- I will make sure that my child arrives for practices and games at the time designated by the coach, ready to begin.
- I will not take part in any form of bullying, whether that is to a parent, player, team coach, referee, or club representative. Bullying in any form, whether in person, electronically (any form of social media) will not be tolerated.
- I realize that the team can be penalized for my behavior. I will obey a request by a referee or from the team's Coach to leave the vicinity of the court.
- I will contribute my child's share of the team fees by assigned dates for the season.
- I realize that failure to abide by the Code of Conduct may result in the removal of myself, and/or my child, from the vicinity of the playing court and potentially further sanctions by the LYB.

Resolving Problems

If a conflict arises throughout the season, I will first attempt to resolve the conflict through the team Head Coach. If the conflict is not resolved to my satisfaction, I will then approach the boys or girls basketball director. If at this point the conflict remains unresolved, I will contact the LYB Board of Directors. The LYB Board of Directors decision regarding the matter will be final.

Discipline

Infractions that occur during the game are governed by the Laws of the Game and will be decided by the referee and supported by the LYB.

Consequences

If for any reason the Code of Conduct is not followed by the parent(s), any [one or more] of the following steps may be taken by LYB:

- A discipline hearing convened by assigned LYB personnel.
- Request the parent not attend team events.
- In extreme cases, the player from the team will not be allowed to play in games.

All parents and supports of current LYB players are bound by this code.
