Secretary Report (Miller)

- Key Upcoming Dates:
  - 6/11 – Last day for in-house games. No games will be rescheduled.
  - Make sure everybody signs into the official sign-in sheet.
    - It is a requirement that in order to run and vote for the upcoming year, you must have at least 6 appearances throughout the year to the monthly meetings.

President's Report (Reeser)

- Stonersville Fire Company and EYBS are in good standing.
  - Dates will be provided for Exeter Youth night at the Reading Phillies game in June.
  - Supplying approximately 750 tickets to Exeter Youth Night at the Reading Phillies game in June.
  - OK'd for another year for field/land use.
- If you are assigned to close the complex, you are to wait until everybody is cleared from the complex. This means all players, coaches, parents, and concession committee.
- There are still Team picture packets in the main concession stands. Please make it a point to get them as soon as possible to distribute to the team.
- Fall Season expectations:
  - Sign up your kids this fall for the level they are intending to play next Spring.
  - Fall Season is more developmental and will better prepare them for the Spring Season.
  - There will be a Halloween weekend in-house Tournament similar to last year.

Vice President of Baseball Report (Jones)

- Great Spring Season all around.
- Work will be needed at the Complex immediately after the Districts/States are finished
  - Infield mix will be spread on all dirt infields before the Fall Season
- There will be no port-o-potty specifically designated for the Davidheiser Field
  - All players/coaches/spectators must utilize the ones located by Lower Softball Field or the Restrooms by Hall of Fame.
- Christmas Tree Sale
  - Sign-up genius will be sent out soon for all coaches to fulfill their obligations
  - There will be an estimated delivery of 325 trees vs. the 250 we received last year.

Vice President of Softball Report (Turner)

- BCGSL has no updated dates currently on their website.
- Spring Season has been successful.
