GOVERNING ATHLETICS

KENNY OWENS, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

WASHINGTON, DC 20002

WELCOME

The District of Columbia State Athletic Association was created in 2012 to serve DC public, public charter and private schools. Under DCSAA guidance, student-athlete participation has risen 44 percent.

With the addition of six new state championship events in the 2021-22 school year, the DCSAA now state champions in 24 sports and continues providing opportunities for student-athletes to showcase their abilities.

This updated 2022-23 handbook provides guidance for administrators, coaches, student-athletes and their parent/guardians. Please take a moment to review these rules and regulations.

Studies regularly show that students who participate in extracurricular activities generally are better prepared to succeed beyond high school. When we work together, we create the best possible experience for our student-athletes to enjoy their high school years and prepare them for the future.

The DCSAA looks forward to working with its member schools' administrators, coaches and staff to make the 2022-23 school year memorable for all of our student-athletes. Please don't hesitate to contact myself or anyone on our staff if you have any concerns or suggestions.

Best,

The DCSAC is an independent agency, established by DC law, which provides oversight and governance over interscholastic athletics in the District of Columbia. The DCSAA is an office under the direction and control of the DCSAC and is authorized by the DCSAC to interpret, apply and enforce the Mayor's regulations governing the conduct of interscholastic athletics and to make conforming amendments to any internal procedures.

B. DCSAC Administration

The DCSAC shall choose annually, from among its members, a Chairperson and such other officers as it deems necessary. All meetings of the DCSAC shall be called by the Chairperson or a majority of the members. The Commission shall meet at least quarterly.

The DCSAC shall appoint an Executive Director to carry out the day to day duties and responsibilities of the Commission. The Executive Director shall serve a three-year term by majority vote. The Executive Director may be reappointed by a majority vote. After notice and an opportunity to be heard, the DCSAC may remove the Executive Director only for cause that relates to the Executive Director's character or efficiency by a majority vote of the Commission.

The Executive Director of the Commission shall serve as the Director of the DCSAA.

C. DCSAC Committees

The Chairperson of the DCSAC shall be an ex-officio member of all standing and ad-hoc committees. Committee membership may include administrators, athletic directors, coaches, local school board members, officials and public members.

These standing committees include Appeals, Rules and Regulations and Sportsmanship. The Chairperson of the DCSAC may appoint additional ad-hoc committees with specific assignments when deemed necessary, including officials committee, sports committee and tournament committee.

The DCSAA and its Director shall interpret and enforce the DCSAA laws and regulations and may grant waivers of the regulations. Any waiver decision made by the DCSAA and its Director may be appealed to the DCSAC Athletic Appeals Panel (AAP). All decisions or actions as noted above shall be documented and shall be part of any hearing or appeal procedure.

2. Provide administrative support to the DCSAC.
3. Carry on the business of the DCSAC and DCSAA between meetings.
4. Regularly report on DCSAA activities to the DCSAC.

The DCSAA and its Director shall hear and decide complaints and initiate a review and/or investigation, of any alleged violation of the DCSAA laws and regulations of which the Director has become aware, or which has been officially reported to the Director pursuant to the complaints and challenges procedure. The DCSAA Director may also refer investigations to committees established by the DCSAC Chair or employ special investigators as necessary to conduct such investigations.

In the event that the DCSAA Director is unavailable to perform his or her duties due to a conflict of interest or otherwise, and a matter requires immediate action, the DCSAA Director may delegate to a subordinate staff member of the DCSAA or to the Chairperson or Vice Chairperson of the DCSAC.

B. Member School Principal and/or Administrative Head

The principal or administrative head of a member school shall be responsible for the conduct of the interscholastic athletic program in which representative teams participate, including the organization and scheduling of individuals and teams. The administrative head may delegate his or her authority, but such delegation will not negate the responsibility for a violation of the DCSAA laws or regulations by his or her school. In the event of delegation of authority, a letter or document shall be filed with the DCSAA office by the respective principal/ administrative head of school.

SAFETY AND WELFARE MANAGEMENT

The member school principal and administration shall ensure that there are adequate safety provisions in place for student-athletes, participants and spectators in all activities, and shall provide sanitary and well-maintained facilities for the dressing and housing of visiting teams and officials.

SPORTSMANSHIP

Member schools are required to conduct all of their athletic affairs with other schools in a spirit of good sportsmanship and with the interests of the student-athletes first and foremost. Acts which are prima facie evidence of a failure to abide by this rule are those which are noted below, and others of a similar nature, which transgress the usually accepted code for good sportsmanship:

1. Failure to provide for proper control of spectators at a contest. When the number of spectators is expected to be large in relation to the seating capacity of the facility, uniformed state, county or local police shall be provided for crowd control. The host school is expected to take reasonable and proper steps to assure crowd control under any foreseeable conditions. Spectators shall be required to comply with the following code of conduct:
 - a. Refrain from using profane, vulgar, obscene, abusive and/or derogatory gestures and/or language towards a student-athlete, participant, coach, official or school staff.
 - b. Refrain from throwing objects.
 - c. Refrain from entering the playing surface or otherwise attempting to interrupt the event or contest.
 - d. Refrain from the use of alcohol or other controlled substances.
 - e. Respect officials' decisions and refrain from harassing officials in any manner.
 - f. Treat the visiting team and officials with courtesy and respect.
 - g. Refrain from participating in or encouraging acts of bullying, hazing and taunting.
2. Failure of a team or competitor to stay in a contest until its normal end when failure to do so is related to dissatisfaction with the officiating of the contest, unless the physical safety of the team or competitor would have been endangered by continuing the contest.
3. Harassment of game officials by a coach. Going onto the playing surface to interrupt a contest in protest of a decision by an official; conduct by a coach, team member, or any individual in the official party which invokes a penalty against the team; continued and visible actions by a coach which indicate to the team and to the spectators that the coach believes the game is being improperly officiated; public demonstrations before, during or after a game with game officials which indicate to others extreme dissatisfaction with the officiating; and such related actions when exhibited in aggravated form are evidence of poor sportsmanship.
4. Failure of a school to use every means at its disposal to impress upon its faculty, student body, team members, coaching staff and spectators the importance of good sportsmanship before, during and after athletic contests. The host school is encouraged to read a brief statement to the teams and the public concerning sportsmanship prior to the start of each athletic contest.

C. Member School Athletic Director

The Athletic Director of each member school shall exercise general control over, and maintain, written records of all of the interscholastic athletic matters of his or her school including, but not limited to, the following:

1. Sanctioning of all local interscholastic athletic contests in which his/her school(s) participates.
2. Excluding any contestant because of improper conduct or ineligibility.
3. Excluding any contestant whose physical health would be jeopardized by such participation, because of illness or injury suffered, until such time as the contestant is declared physically fit by the school or attending physician.

4. Protecting the well-being of all visitors and officials attending interscholastic athletic contests conducted by his/her school. Administrative heads of member schools shall be expected to provide adequate security and, in the absence of such provisions, penalties may be imposed by the DCSAC.
5. When a contest is conducted at a neutral site, the Athletic Director of the participating schools shall be held jointly responsible for the protection and wellbeing of all visitors and officials. In the absence of adequate security, penalties may be imposed upon either or both of the schools.
6. Protecting the wellbeing of the school's participants by providing them with safe and suitable uniforms and equipment and conducting practices and contests in a manner which minimizes risk to the health and safety of student-athletes.
7. Ensuring that all required contracts for athletic contests in which the school participates are in writing and bear the proper signatures.
8. Designating a staff member of the school as the faculty manager for the teams representing the school or to serve as the faculty manager. If no such designation is made, the coach shall be deemed as serving as the faculty manager.
9. Ensuring that an authorized representative accompanies the school's teams to and from all contests.
10. Certifying in writing the eligibility of his/her school's contestants in accordance with the Regulations of the Office of the State Superintendent of Education.
11. Exercising such other powers regarding the interscholastic athletic program of the school as is consistent with the needs of the school and with the provisions and spirit of the Regulations of the DCSAA.
12. Urging all students competing on the school's teams to obtain medical accident insurance which covers athletic participation.

ADULT REPRESENTATION

The school principals and athletic directors are responsible to the DCSAA for school teams and other school organizations. All teams and individual participants must have adult representation present and responsible for them at all times. Such adult representation must be an employee or a designated representative of the school district. If the representative is not the coach of record, then the designee must provide written introduction on school letterhead, signed by the principal, or the student-athlete(s) will not be permitted to participate. Schools must have game coverage (other than the coach) at all varsity contests.

ATHLETES' ASSEMBLY

Prior to each season, every school should hold a Student-Athletes' Assembly planned by the principal, athletic director, head coaches and medical personnel to discuss policies, liability, sportsmanship, safety and wellness. One parent or guardian should attend with each student-athlete.

TRANSPORTATION

The DCSAA is not responsible for providing transportation to and from DCSAA Championship events. Schools shall arrange for the transportation of teams by common carriers such as school buses, bus lines, METRO, vans or taxi cabs. They should discourage the use of private cars when possible.

REQUIRED USE OF OFFICIALS

Member schools and tournament sponsors shall be required to use officials approved by DCSAA for interscholastic contests. Use of non-approved officials without permission from the DCSAA Director may result in the member school forfeiting the contest and/or the tournament sponsor being placed on probation. In the case of emergencies such as an act of God, refusal by an association to work games, or a shortage of qualified officials, schools which desire to use officials other than approved officials must obtain permission from the DCSAA Director.

EQUIPMENT

Member schools should ascertain that all athletic equipment is in first-class condition and that no defective equipment is used. All equipment should meet the protective standards established by the National Operating Committee on Standards for Athletic Equipment (NOCSAE) for certification or re-certification (nocsae.org).

The DCSAA recommends that all member schools have written policies, made available to the public, on the following:

1. Equipment Cleaning;
2. Equipment Repair;
3. Equipment Safety Review; and
4. Equipment Condemnation.

For the purposes of this handbook, equipment means regulation equipment used by athletes while participating in interscholastic athletic practice sessions and contests. Examples of equipment include: football helmets, soccer shin guards, baseball catcher's helmets with faceguard and the like.

SPORTSMANSHIP

Member school Athletic Directors shall comply with the following code of conduct:

1. Encourage and promote friendly relations and good sportsmanship throughout the school by requiring courtesy and proper decorum at all times, by familiarizing students and others in the community with the ideals of good sportsmanship and by publicizing these concepts and attitudes so that all members of the school community understand and appreciate their meaning.
2. Review the sportsmanship rules with all athletic staff and student-athletes.
3. Encourage all to judge the success of the interscholastic athletic program based on the attitude of the participants and spectators rather than on the number of games won or lost.
4. Insist that all participants adhere to the highest standards of good sportsmanship as a means of ensuring desirable spectator attitudes.
5. Develop and implement policies for their interscholastic athletic programs to discourage acts of bullying, hazing and taunting.

D. Member School Coaches

Only those professional employees certified by the DCSAA, whose salary and/or stipend is paid by the District of Columbia, or in the case of public charter and nonpublic schools by a similar governing body, and who is accepted as a coach by the governing body shall coach, assist in coaching, or direct member school teams in the District of Columbia.

RULES INTERPRETATION CLINICS

Annual rules interpretation clinics will be conducted for local boards of officials in each sport prior to the opening of each season. The date, time and location of all clinics will be published. Coaches are required to attend their sport specific clinic as part of their certification process. Failure to do so shall prevent the coach from coaching in interscholastic athletic competitions in the District of Columbia.

All varsity head coaches (junior varsity if the school does not sponsor a varsity team) shall be required to attend a DCSAA rules clinic for their particular sport. A school shall be placed on the Non-approved schools for play list if its coaches do not attend a sport specific DCSAA rules clinic.

10. Never illegally recruit athletes

E. Officials

Officials for DCSAA sponsored athletic contests, both regular and postseason, are to be certified and registered with the DCSAA office. The DCSAA coordinator of officials will facilitate this process with all local officials' boards. Registration and certification requirements are as follows:

2. Be a member in good standing with a local DCSAA recognized officials' group.
3. Pass a criminal background check.

RULES INTERPRETATION CLINICS

Annual rules interpretation clinics will be conducted for local boards of officials in each sport prior to the opening of each season. The date, time and location of all clinics will be published. Officials are required to attend their sport specific clinic as part of their certification process. Failure to do so shall prevent the official from officiating in interscholastic athletic competitions in the District of Columbia.

Officials shall be required each year to attend the DCSAA rules interpretation clinic and to pass the rules examination provided by the DCSAA office for the sport(s) they officiate.

Failure on the part of an official to attend the DCSAA rules interpretation clinic and pass the rules examination in the same season shall cause the official to be placed on probation and to lose their eligibility to officiate a state tournament contest during that season.

Failure to satisfy both requirements in the same season for two consecutive years shall cause the official to lose varsity officiating status during the second season. Failure to fulfill this obligation in subsequent years shall cause the official to continue to be restricted to junior varsity contests until both requirements have been satisfied in the same season.

If, for a legitimate reason which is documented by the president of their association, an official is unable to attend the DCSAA rules interpretation clinic, they may view a videotape of the DCSAA clinic or, in the absence of a videotape, attend a clinic conducted by another NFHS member state association provided the following procedures are observed:

1. No later than the day of the DCSAA rules interpretation clinic, the president of the association notifies the DCSAC Executive Director, in writing, of the official's inability to attend the clinic.
2. The out of state clinic is conducted by an individual either trained by the NFHS or designated as a clinician by the state's athletic association.
3. The official arranges for a letter to be sent to the DCSAC Executive Director from the state's athletic association office verifying his/ her attendance at the clinic.

REQUIRED USE OF OFFICIALS AND RECOGNITION OF OFFICIALS' ASSOCIATIONS

The officiating of interscholastic contests in the District of Columbia which involve one or more member schools shall be under the control of the DCSAA and such control may include, but is not restricted to, giving examinations, evaluating officials, setting game fees, determining the number of officials per game and assigning officials.

An officials' association which desires to officiate middle school and high school contests shall request recognition and approval from DCSAA by submitting the following documents to the DCSAA Officials' Committee:

1. A letter of request to be recognized by the DCSAA and indicating the association's willingness to abide by DCSAA rules and regulations. The president of the requesting officials' association or their designee shall petition the DCSAA to render a decision.
2. A brief history of the association including, but not limited to, the officiating experience (if any) of the members and if a new association is being formed, the purpose for which the association is being formed.
3. A copy of the association's constitution and bylaws including a statement that it does not discriminate on the basis of age, gender, race, religion, etc.
4. A description of the association's recruiting and training programs for new members.
5. A membership roster indicating the number of years of experience at the sub-varsity, varsity and state tournament levels for each member and also their most recent rating in a previous association. This information must be documented and is subject to verification.
6. Letters of recommendation or names of references from leagues which the association has serviced during their existence.

The Officials' Committee shall review the aforementioned documents and meet with the officers of the association to discuss their petition.

The Officials Committee shall reserve the right to consult with any other interested parties during the evaluation process.

The Officials' Committee shall report its findings to the DCSAC and recommend that the officials' association be granted recognition, granted recognition with conditions, or denied recognition.

The DCSAC shall consider the petition and the Officials' Committee's recommendation, and shall make a decision to approve or deny the request. V. ELIGIBILITY

A. Generally

Requirements for students to be eligible to participate in interscholastic athletics at a member school shall be applied uniformly to all member schools and amongst all students participating or seeking to participate in interscholastic athletics at a member school.

In order to establish eligibility to participate in interscholastic athletics at a member school, a student shall meet the requirements regarding:

1. Age, semester and grade level.
2. Residency.

3. Academics.
4. Health and fitness.
5. Attendance.

The LEA or member school shall make the initial determination of a student's eligibility to participate in interscholastic athletics and certify eligibility status for all enrolled and participating students as set forth in this section.

A certification of eligibility roster shall contain the following information:

1. Full name of eligible athlete (Last, First, MI);
2. Address of residence (Street, City, State);
3. Age and date of birth;
4. Date of first entry into 9th grade (Month and Year); and
5. Identify if the student is a transfer student and, if so, the name of the school from which the student transferred and the date of the transfer.

Each LEA or member school shall submit a master eligibility roster by sport to the DCSAA 14 days after the start of the official season for the sport but prior to the first official date of competition. A supplemental eligibility list may be submitted to the DCSAA no later than 21 days after the first official contest.

The information provided on an eligibility roster shall be considered "directory information" in accordance with 34 C.F.R. § 99.31(a)(11). The member school shall provide this information to the DCSAA unless the parent(s) or the adult student has opted out of allowing directory information disclosure and refuses to sign a consent authorizing disclosure for this specific purpose.

If a member school is not authorized to disclose the above information on the eligibility roster, the applicable student shall not be certified as eligible to participate in a DCSAA sanctioned sport or activity.

The DCSAA may request additional information:

1. If it determines that the information provided in the certification of eligibility roster is incomplete, or
2. If it determines that the information provided is inconsistent with information that the DCSAA has on file. The DCSAA will provide the LEA and/or member school with a letter detailing the information being requested and how the information relates to eligibility verification.

If the LEA or member school fails to provide the aforementioned documentation, the student shall not be certified as eligible to participate in DCSAA sanctioned sports or activities.

The last term of the previous year shall determine eligibility for the first marking period of the following school year.

Summer school courses shall be added to the accumulation of courses taken during the entirety of the previous school year. Summer school grades can only be taken into account if using the final accumulation of courses to determine eligibility. Summer school courses will count toward the total number of classes passed during a semester provided that the work for such courses was completed before the first day of the next school year. In order to calculate GPA, summer school courses shall not replace a failed course, but should be added to the total number of courses used to calculate GPA. Written verification of the completion of applicable summer school courses must be received in the form of an official report card before a student shall regain eligibility.

All practice sessions shall be conducted under the supervision of the school's certified and/or approved volunteer coaching staff.

Member schools may conduct practice sessions during the approved sports seasons as defined in "Sports Seasons".

Member schools shall conduct practice sessions regularly during the 21 calendar days prior to the first scheduled contest.

Team practice in any sport is prohibited after the sports season ends until the first day following the final student day of the school year.

Students shall have unrestricted access to drinking water and be permitted a minimum of one five-minute rest period during each hour of practice.

Member schools shall comply with the heat related practice modifications designated by the DCSAA. At no time during the school year may any off-season team gather with all positions represented.

Any team practice or game environment created in an Off-Season Skill Session is prohibited during the academic school year calendar, inclusive of all weekends, holidays, work days, etc.

On a given day, an athlete is limited to skills development OR open facility OR weight training/conditioning during the academic school year calendar, inclusive of all weekends, holidays, work days, etc.

However, the restrictions on non-school day practice sessions apply and there must be one day of no activity (practice, scrimmage, or contest) during any seven-day period.

PRACTICE ON OFFICIAL STUDENT SCHOOL DAY

Member schools shall comply with the following for all practice sessions held on official student school days.

Practice sessions shall be limited to three hours; two hours on the field and one hour of instructional activity.

The three hour limit on practice sessions on official school days includes all instructional activity on the field, court, mat, or track or in the pool, weight room, or classroom such as team meetings, film reviews, blackboard sessions, warm-up and cool-down exercises, drills or mandatory strength training.

Split sessions may be conducted but practice time shall not exceed two hours for any individual athlete.

A school which fails to comply with these practice requirements may jeopardize their membership status.

PRACTICE ON NON SCHOOL DAYS

Member schools shall comply with the following for all practice sessions held on non-school days. A non-school day is defined as a day when, in accordance with the approved school calendar, students are not scheduled for academic instructional activities.

Practice sessions on a non-school day are defined as the time a participant engages in physical or instructional activity.

Each practice session shall be no more than two hours in length.

The hourly practice limitation does not include time for non-instructional activities such as dressing, showering, transportation, or training room care.

Students shall not participate in more than two practice sessions totaling no more than five hours of practice on non-school practice days including a one-hour walk-through session. A walk-through session shall be defined as a teaching opportunity with no protective equipment (e.g., shin guards, helmets, etc.) or equipment related to a given sport (e.g., soccer balls, lacrosse sticks, etc.).

On days when two practice sessions are conducted, no practice session shall exceed two hours in length and must be separated with at least two hours of recovery time between the end of the first practice and the beginning of the next practice.

Split sessions, defined as a practice session held for different groups of students playing the same sport, may be conducted but practice time shall not exceed three hours per session and five hours total daily for any individual athlete.

SKILL DEVELOPMENT SESSIONS

Skill development sessions are allowed but shall not be held during any tryout period of an in-season sport.

Skill Development Sessions are not allowed during the following Dead Periods: (Teams that are in season are exempt of these restrictions).

1. Fall: From the start of fall sports practice through midnight September 1.
2. Winter: From the start of winter sports practice through midnight December 1.
3. Spring: From the start of spring sports practice through midnight March 15.
4. Summer: During the week of the Fourth of July (if July 4 is on Saturday, it is the week before July 4; if July 4 is on Sunday, it is the week after); the Friday, Saturday and Sunday before the opening of Fall Practice.
5. Academic Dead Period. Sessions are also not allowed during the last five student days of each semester or designated final exam days for the year. The weight room must also be closed during this period.

All skill development sessions must be voluntary and open to all eligible students. At no time, may a coach require of any student off-season skill development sessions as a measure of continued participation on a team. Any coach who promotes the idea that taking part in off-season practice is required is blatantly out of compliance with the intent and purpose of this rule.

A student must be eligible under DCSAA guidelines to take part in out-of-season sessions.

Student insurance is strongly recommended for all those involved in athletics, in-season and out-of-season.

There is no restriction on the number of coaches who may work with the athletes.

Multiple skill development sessions may be held in a day but athletes are limited to one session per day (NONE during dead periods).

While facilities are being used for open facility, they may not be used simultaneously for individual skill development sessions

OPEN GYM PROGRAMS

Open Gym is defined as any facility used by the school for athletic purposes. Open gym and skill development sessions are open only to students enrolled at that school and may not be held on the same day.

Open gym and/or open facility sessions may not be held during a dead period.

Eighth graders are not permitted to participate in open facility or skill development sessions on high school campuses.

Facilities may be used for out-of-season athletic play on a strictly voluntary basis, open to all students and required of none.

The activities must be unstructured and student generated. Organized drills in the skills or techniques of a particular sport are prohibited. Organized competition with fixed team rosters is also prohibited.

A coach may not predetermine that the open gym will include only their sport and publicize the open gym as being restricted to that sport. It is the responsibility of the adult supervisor to permit as many different activities as the facility can effectively and safely accommodate.

A coach may open the facility and distribute playing equipment but may not instruct, officiate, participate, organize the activities, or choose teams in their assigned sport.

Playing equipment is restricted to that which is customarily used in a contest in a particular sport. Playing equipment which is only used in a practice session is prohibited.

The participants must provide their own workout clothing.

D. Contests

1. DEFINITION

A contest is defined as a competition between two teams from different schools. Only eligible student-athletes who are attending a member school shall participate in scrimmages of an athletic team during the season. All regular season contests shall be scheduled through the member school and/or LEAs office of Athletics. All competitions must be conducted in accordance with the constitution, laws, policies, procedures, rules and regulations of the DCSAA and the NFHS.

2. CONTEST GUIDELINES

A student that has not previously participated in that sports season shall be required to participate with the team for a period of at least seven calendar days prior to participating in a contest. Eligibility for participation in a contest shall begin on the eighth calendar day of participation with the team. However, if a student has been participating in a state tournament during the preceding sports season and is unable to begin practicing at least seven calendar days before the team's first contest, student shall be exempt from this requirement.

The third contest or competition date in a week shall be held on Friday (no early dismissal permitted), Saturday or Sunday. This requirement is waived when a school is closed for the entire week such as during winter or spring vacation.

A team shall not participate in two or more events at the same level of competition on the same day. However, a team shall be permitted a one-time per season exception to participate in two different events on the same day. If a team elects to use the exception it shall count as two contests or two competition dates as applicable toward the season team limitation.

With the exception of cross country, indoor track, outdoor track and golf, participation in a triangular meet shall count as two contests and participation in a quadrangular meet shall count as three contests toward the seasonal limitation.

Participation in any part of a quarter or half shall count as a quarter or half toward the weekly and daily limitations in that sport. However, in the case of football, participation on a free kick or a play from a scrimmage kick formation shall not count as a quarter. Overtime periods shall be considered as part of the fourth quarter or second half.

A week shall be designated as starting on Monday and ending on Sunday for all sports except football. A football week shall begin the day of the varsity game and end the day preceding the next varsity game or the following Friday.

The preceding game limitations, listed below, with the exception of the individual daily limitation, shall not prohibit the rescheduling of postponed games at the discretion and convenience of the member schools involved provided the game was postponed due to inclement weather, unplayable field conditions, failure of the assigned officials to appear for the game, breakdown of the bus or van carrying the visiting team, or any other circumstances beyond the control of site management which preclude playing the game. However, a team may not participate in more than four contests or competition dates in a week.

The maximum number of regularly scheduled contests for each of the recognized sports, except football, shall be exclusive of conference championships, playoffs to determine tournament state berths and the state tournament or meet. Member schools are limited to one conference championship event. In wrestling, the state meet qualifying tournaments shall count as the only permissible event in addition to the regular season and state meets. The maximum number of regularly scheduled football contests shall be exclusive of the state tournament.

Any playoffs to determine state tournament berths shall be under the control and supervision of the DCSAC tournament committee.

A student shall participate in a particular sport for only one season during each academic year.

A school which participates in more than the allowable number of contests in a season shall be suspended from the state playoffs or, if a non-qualifying team, placed on probation for the next school year.

A school which exceeds the weekly contest limitation shall be required to forfeit the contest.

A student who exceeds the weekly or daily contest limitation shall be considered an ineligible athlete.

3. ALL-STAR CONTESTS

- a. The all-star contest must be approved by DCSAA in accordance with the following criteria:
 - i. The contest shall be organized, promoted and conducted by and all profits go to a nonprofit organization. Involvement by a commercial organization shall be limited to providing financial support.

- ii. The awards given shall be in compliance with this handbook.
- iii. Exceptions to the adopted rules for the sport, including uniform regulations, shall require the approval of DCSAA.
- iv. A full financial report must be filed with the DCSAA Director within 90 days of the contest. Failure to submit a financial report within the specified period of time shall result in the sponsoring organization being placed on probation for the following school year.
- v. The event organizer shall not accept financial support or sell advertising to companies involved in the production or distribution of alcohol and tobacco products.
- b. A student who participates in a team sport may participate in an “all-star” competition for the sport that occurs outside the interscholastic season of the sport without jeopardy to his or her eligibility if:
 - i. The all-star competition is an activity sanctioned by the DCSAA or another National Federation of State High School Association (“NFHS”) member;
 - ii. All participants in the all-star competition are graduating seniors or students completing their athletic eligibility at the end of the school year or they have received a waiver from DCSAA to participate;
 - iii. The student has played in no more than one other all-star competition in his or her sport.
 - iv. The all-star competition occurs after the student has participated in his or her final contest for his or her school.
- c. A senior who fails to comply with 5-F DCMR§ 112.1 may be subject to a penalty that may result in the loss of athletic eligibility for the balance of the school year. For all other students, the penalty may result in loss of eligibility for the next season in the sport in which the student participated in the all-star competition. The DCSAC may review any penalty decisions.

4. SCHOOL AND TEAM COMPETITION

Interscholastic competition is defined as any athletic contest between students representing two or more schools. Members of school clubs who participate in non-competitive, recreational activities or compete unattached are not considered to be engaged in interscholastic competition. Students are considered to be representing a school if the school does any of the following:

- a. Partially or wholly subsidizes the activity (providing equipment, uniforms, transportation, entry fees, etc.).
- b. Controls and administers the funds, regardless of their source, needed to conduct the activity
- c. Permits students to compete under the name of the school.
- d. Publicizes or promotes the activity through announcements, bulletins, or school sponsored publications in excess of what is customarily done for "outside" organizations.
- e. Presents or displays individual or team awards.

Schools may sponsor teams for interscholastic competition in a sport provided the following criteria are met:

- a. The governing body of the participating district or nonpublic school approves participation in the sport. The administrative head of the school shall notify the DCSAC Executive Director in writing of the school's intent to sponsor a team in a new sport.
- b. The governing body of the participating district or nonpublic school controls the funds needed to support the proposed team, regardless of their source, in the same manner as existing teams (coaches' salaries, purchase and repair of equipment, medical supervision, transportation, preparation and maintenance of practice and game facilities, awards, etc.). Requests from outside sources to make financial contributions or to donate equipment or services must be submitted in writing and must include an acknowledgment that the equipment becomes the property of the school. The contribution or donation must be approved in writing by the administrative head of the school.
- c. The participating schools agree to comply with all applicable DCSAA rules and regulations as stated in the current DCSAA Handbook.

5. LEVELS OF PARTICIPATION

Level 1 or development sport: less than 10 participating schools at the varsity level. DCSAA rules and regulations shall not be in effect.

Level 2 or recognized sport: 12 or more participating schools at the varsity level. Participating schools must petition the DCSAC for official recognition of the sport.

At the time of official recognition, DCSAA shall provide rules publications to the participating schools, designate an approved officials' association, conduct an annual or biannual rules clinic for coaches and officials, establish a maximum game schedule and form a committee to promote the continued development of the sport and prepare for a future state championship. All DCSAA rules and regulations shall then be in effect.

Level 3 or championship sport: 14 or more participating schools at the varsity level. Upon petition by the sport committee and adoption of a tournament, DCSAC shall establish a state championship.

Withdrawal of level 2 or level 3 status. If, for two consecutive years, less than the required number of schools participate in a sport, DCSAC may withdraw official recognition or suspend the state tournament/ meet for a period of time as determined by the Board of Commissioners. The DCSAA Director reserves the right to elevate a sport with fewer than 14 varsity teams to Level 3/championship status.

6. SANCTIONING COMPETITIONS

Member schools may participate in tournaments or meets involving four or more schools only if the event has been sanctioned by DCSAA and, if applicable, by the NFHS. Tournaments or meets shall be sanctioned in accordance with the following criteria:

- a. The event shall not be for determining a state champion.
- b. The event shall be organized, promoted and conducted by and all profits go to a nonprofit organization. Involvement by a commercial organization shall be limited to providing financial support.
- c. Non-symbolic competition awards shall have a value of not more than $250 per recipient and shall require the prior approval of the DCSAC Executive Director.
- d. Non-school event organizers shall submit a full financial report to the DCSAA office within 90 calendar days of the completion of the event.
- e. The event organizer shall submit a list of out of state schools which have been invited to participate and such schools shall be subject to approval by the DCSAC Executive Director.
- f. Member schools are permitted only to play against opponents which are members of their state athletic association or non-members which have been approved to play by their state athletic association.
- g. The event organizer shall not accept financial support or sell advertising to companies involved in the production or distribution of alcohol and tobacco products.
- h. The event organizer shall comply with all applicable NFHS sanctioning requirements.

Participation in a non-sanctioned event shall result in forfeiture of the contest. A second offense may result in the member school being placed on a non-approved play status for the remainder of the sport season. A third offense shall result in loss of eligibility to participate in sanctioned events for the remainder of the school year.

7. LOCAL COMPETITIONS

The following rules shall apply for local competitions:

- a. DCSAA member schools or LEAs interested in competing in outside meets or tournaments should advise the sponsoring school or college to make application for sanction by the DCSAA. Application forms must be submitted via e-mail not less than 30 days in advance of the date on which the meet or tournament has been scheduled.
- b. The DCSAA shall evaluate each application for sanction. Factors to be considered include but are not necessarily limited to, the following:
 - i. Date, time and place contest will be played.

 - iii. Loss of time from school.
 - iv. Number of games required per day.
 - v. Commercial exploitation of competing teams.
 - vi. Game rules governing athletic contest(s) to be played.
 - vii. Number of contests scheduled by the team.
- c. Sanctions shall not be given for athletic activities which:
 - i. Conflict with interscholastic athletic events sponsored by the DCSAA.
 - ii. Fail to require and endorse satisfactory entrance requirements for all teams participating.
 - iii. Offer awards which might jeopardize the amateur standing of winners or participants.
 - iv. Invite participation by suspended schools.
 - v. Fail to utilize approval criteria for selection of participating schools or individual athletes.

8. INTERSTATE COMPETITIONS

The following rules shall apply to sanctions for Interstate Competitions:

- a. Application for sanction of interstate athletic events must be submitted via e-mail to the DCSAA not less than 30 days in advance of the date for which the event has been scheduled

IX. AWARDS

A. Academic

The DCSAA provides Certificates of Achievement to all student-athletes and to the school for each team that achieves a minimum combined GPA of 3.00. The Principal or Athletic Director should determine and request the certificates from the DCSAA.

B. Sportsmanship

The DCSAA provides Certificates of Achievement to individuals, teams and schools that demonstrate notable qualities of exemplary citizenship or leadership. The Principal or Athletic Director should determine eligibility and submit the awards request to the DCSAA.

C. Athletic

Member schools and support groups affiliated with a member schools, such as an alumni association or booster club, shall be allowed to present recognition awards for team and individual accomplishments. The awards, including artwork and lettering, shall require the approval of the administrative head of the school and their value shall be mostly symbolic, no more than $500.00. Member schools and support groups affiliated with member schools are also permitted to sponsor banquets.

A nonprofit group such as a coaches association, booster club not affiliated with a member school, or community service organization shall be allowed to present recognition awards for team and individual accomplishments with the approval of the administrative head of the school. Nonprofit groups shall also be permitted to sponsor banquets.

Commercial organizations shall be allowed to present recognition awards for team or individual accomplishments with the approval of the administrative head of the school.

Permissible awards include trophies, plaques, medals, letters, certificates, photographs and similar items. Jackets, sweaters, shirts, watches, rings, charms and similar items if properly inscribed (reference to the team or individual athletic accomplishment) are also acceptable. The awards shall have symbolic value only, awards with utilitarian value are prohibited. The aggregate retail value of the award shall not exceed $500 per team or per recipient.

X. INCLEMENT WEATHER

A. Thunder and Lightning

The presence of thunder and/or lightning necessitates that all outdoor activities be suspended immediately. The occurrence of either thunder or lightning is not subject to interpretation or discussion. If thunder and/or lightning is heard and/or observed all outdoor activities will be suspended immediately. Players and spectators shall be directed to a safe location.

Schools should adhere to the following guidelines if thunder and lightning occurs during outdoor athletic contests:

1. Thunder or lightning necessitates that all outdoor practices and competitions be suspended.
2. Each Member School shall have a plan for shelter prior to the start of any contest.
3. When thunder is heard or when lightning is seen, the following procedures must be executed:
 - a. Suspend play and direct participants to the previously identified shelter, a building normally occupied by the public or if a building is unavailable, participants should go inside a vehicle with a solid metal top (e.g. bus, van, car).
 - b. Do not permit people to stand under or near a tree; and have people stay away from poles, antennas, towers and underground watering systems.
 - c. After thunder and/or has left the area, wait 30 minutes after the last boom is heard or strike is seen before resuming play or competition.

The following recommendations are made to mitigate the lightning hazard:

1. Identify an individual to monitor threatening weather conditions before, during and after outdoor activities and to make a final decision to suspend play.
2. Monitor local weather reports daily prior to any scheduled outdoor activities. Be aware of the potential for severe weather and plan accordingly. Be aware of local weather service terminology: "watch" vs. "warning", as well as the signs of storm development.
3. Develop an emergency action plan for evacuation to a safe location for each venue that will host athletic practice and/or contests. Ensure that the designated safe location is immediately accessible (unlocked). Clearly identify appropriate nearby shelter locations with maps if necessary. A comprehensive plan should include instructions for participants and spectators as well as an established all clear signal. Communicate the emergency action plan to all officials and coaches prior to the need to take shelter to avoid unnecessary delay.

If thunder and/or lightning are present, shelter must be taken for a minimum of 30 minutes from the time of the interruption before considering the resumption of play.

If thunder and/or lightning is observed at the site of an outdoor activity 30 or fewer minutes prior to the scheduled start of that activity, the official/coaches and the responsible school authorities shall not permit the contest to begin on that date until the inclement weather has cleared or the conditions become playable.

If thunder and/or lightning is observed during the playing of the outdoor activity, the official/ coaches shall immediately cease play for a minimum of 30 minutes, have all participants and spectators seek appropriate shelter, as defined below, then re- evaluate the situation.

Any subsequent thunder and/or lightning after the beginning of the 30 minute count shall reset the clock and another 30 minute count shall begin.

Appropriate shelter is defined as any sturdy, fully enclosed, substantial building that has plumbing and/or electrical wiring that acts to electrically ground the structure. Examples of locations routinely used that DO NOT meet the criteria for an appropriate shelter include:

1. Baseball/softball dugouts;
2. Baseball/softball "covered" batting cages;
3. Outside storage sheds;
4. Canopy/awning/tent/trees;
5. Persons should avoid taking showers and using plumbing facilities (including indoor and outdoor pools, whirlpools, Jacuzzis and hot tubs) and land-line telephones during a thunderstorm.

If no safe structure or location is within a reasonable distance, personnel should find a thick grove of small trees surrounded by taller trees, or a dry ditch. Everyone should assume a lightning-safe position: a crouched position on the ground with the feet together, weight on the balls of the feet, head lowered and ears covered. Minimize the body's surface area contact with the ground. Do not lie flat!

If unable to reach safe shelter, persons should stay away from the tallest trees or objects (i.e. light poles flag poles, etc.), metal objects (i.e. fences, bleachers, etc.), individual trees, standing pools of water and open fields. Persons should avoid being the highest object in an open field.

More information on thunder and lightning safety can be found at the following:

B. WBGT Enviromental Monitoring

WAYS TO MEASURE/GAUGE HEAT AND HUMIDITY

A wet bulb globe temperature (WBGT) is required to be measured on-site to determine if practices/contests should be modified or canceled. It is the responsibility of the school's coaching staff to know the WBGT before, during and after a scheduled practice, activity, or game. Modifications to activity will be made according to the chart below. The on-site WBGT should be measured 10-15 minutes before practices or contests and throughout the duration of activity at the site determined to most likely reflect the highest WBGT reading. A WBGT is the most effective method for determining environmental heat risk because it takes into consideration not only ambient temperature and humidity, but also solar radiation and wind speed. It is the responsibility of the school's coaching staff to know and respond appropriately to the WBGT before, during and after a scheduled practice, activity, or contest.

HEAT ACCLIMATIZATION

If athletes are not properly acclimatized for play and treated properly they can suffer chronic if not fatal consequences. Student-Athletes who begin training in the late summer (i.e. football, soccer and cross country) experience exertional heat-related illness more often than athletes who begin training during the winter and spring months. Furthermore, an athlete's body mass, current level of conditioning and demands of their position should all be taken into account when devising conditioning plans. For example, a lineman and a wide receiver should have separate conditioning programs and should not be expected to complete the same activities. Athletes with a larger body mass are most at-risk to experience exertional heat illness resulting in critical health emergencies.

All coaches and staff should participate in specific heat acclimatization training (is.gd/zOfVLp) and American Red Cross CPR/First Aid/AED training before being allowed to convene practice or participation in any sport.

The following guidelines are based off Grundstein et al. 2015 and are evidence-based for the region.

Measured as WBGT	Activity Guidelines (Category 3)	Minimum Break Guidelines (all sports)
< 82.0	Normal Activities	Three 3-minutes breaks each hour
82.2 - 86.9	Use discretion for intense or prolonged exercise;	Three 4-minute breaks each hour
87.1 - 90.0	Maximum practice time is 2 h. For Football: players are restricted to helmet, shoulder pads, and shorts during practice. If the WBGT rises to this level during practice, players may continue to work out wearing football pants without changing to shorts.	Four 4-minute breaks each hour
90.1 - 91.9	Maximum practice time is 1 h. For Football: No protective equipment may be worn during practice, and there may be no conditioning activities.	20 minutes of total rest breaks distributed during the 1 hour session
> 92.1	No outdoor workouts. Delay practice until a cooler WBGT is reached.	N/A

HEAT ILLNESSES AND HYDRATION

The following heat illnesses and hydration information has been developed by the District of Columbia State Athletic Association Sports Medicine Advisory Committee (DCSAA SMAC) to provide the highest quality healthcare for student-athletes in the District of Columbia and to help educate student-athletes, parents, coaches, athletic directors, certified athletic trainers, medical professionals and school staff about heat and hydration. These recommendations shall be followed by all coaches and staff and participants unless or until they are changed by the Department of Health or the State Athletic Office, or through heat acclimatization training or American Red Cross training standards.

This document should also be referenced periodically for recollection and any updates or improvements. This document was established to increase safety and performance for student-athletes who in engage in physical activity, especially in warm and hot environments. Many cases of exertional heat illness are preventable and can be successfully treated if onsite personnel identify the condition and implement appropriate care in a timely manner. The purpose of this information is to a) increase awareness of heat-related illnesses, b) provide useful recommendations to optimize fluid replacement for athletes, c) provide information regarding predisposing factors that increase an athlete's risk for heat illness, and d) identify factors that influence optimal rehydration during and after athletic participation.

Regardless of the conditioning program and conditioning status leading up to the first formal practice, all student-athletes (including those who arrive at preseason practice after the first day of practice) must follow the 8-day heat acclimatization plan starting on the first official day practice is allowed. The 8-day period is adhered to on an individual basis, not as a team. All DCSAA member schools must follow the Heat Acclimatization Period that is detailed below:

1. Days 1-5
 - a. First formal practices.
 - b. No more than 1 practice per day.

- c. You can have a one-hour walk-through; however, a 3-hour recovery period must be inserted between the practice and walk-through (or vice versa).
2. Days 1-2
 - a. T-shirt, shorts and helmet should be the only protective equipment provided.
3. Days 3-5
 - a. Only helmets and shoulder pads should be worn.
 - b. Contact with blocking sleds and tackling dummies may be initiated.
4. Day 6
 - a. All protective equipment may be worn and full contact may begin.
5. Day 9+
 - a. Double practice days (2 days) cannot begin until after Day 8.
 - b. Two-a-days cannot be longer than 5 hours total.
 - c. Two-a-days may not be held on back-to-back days.

Physical exertion and training activities should begin slowly and continue progressively. The majority of heat-related deaths happen during the first few days of practice, usually promoted by doing too much too soon, and in some cases with too much protective gear on too early in the seasoning (i.e. wearing helmet, shoulder pads, pants and other protective gear). Players must be allowed the time to adapt safely to the environment, intensity, duration and uniform.

No dark colored clothes should be worn because it can increase the body's absorption of solar radiation, while moisture-wicking clothing helps with the body's ability to dissipate heat. Absolutely no long sleeves or pants are to be worn. As much bare skin as possible should be exposed, as permitted by the protective equipment and practice uniform.

Student-Athletes should never be denied or discouraged from drinking water/fluids. Fluids should be readily accessible throughout practice. Athletes should NEVER be punished by withholding water/fluids.

XI. HEALTH, SAFETY AND WELLNESS

A. Coverage

The following shall apply to student-athletes:

1. A student shall provide a medical certification confirming that the student is physically fit for the sport in which the student seeks to participate,
2. A student shall be covered by appropriate accident insurance, obtained either by his member school or his or her custodial parent or custodial legal guardian and approved by his or her member school, during each season the student participates.
3. Appropriate notice of the coverage and cost of the accident insurance obtained by his or her member school shall be provided annually to the custodial parent or custodial guardian and adult students.
4. A custodial parent or custodial guardian submitting a policy for approval by the student's member school shall do so within the time specified by the member school.
5. Students participating in football shall be insured by additional football accident insurance which shall be paid for by the member school in which the student is enrolled.
6. A student shall not be eligible to try out, practice, scrimmage, or compete in an interscholastic contest unless a licensed physician (MD or OD) or a licensed nurse practitioner, verifies in writing on or after April 1 and before beginning such athletic activity for the current school year that the student has been adequately examined within the last 12 months and is cleared medically to participate, however, should any conditions found in section 5-F DCMR § 104.7 of this regulation occur since the last examination, a reexamination and/or a copy of a clearance letter signed by one of the above is required before the student can be medically cleared.

7. An athlete is temporarily ineligible to participate if the athlete who is otherwise properly certified to participate in interscholastic athletics is physically unable to participate due to illness or injury for five consecutive days on which a practice, scrimmage or contest is held. Prior to resuming participation, the athlete must present to the administrative head of school or designee, a statement from a licensed physician (MD or DO), a nurse practitioner, or a physician's assistant that the athlete is again physically able to participate.
8. Subsequent to any serious injury and prior to further participation in that sport, a student-athlete must receive a medical release from a licensed physician.
9. A student who participates in a contest without a pre-participation physical evaluation shall be considered an ineligible athlete.

A Department of Health Universal Health Care form certifying the examination as well as the parent's, legal guardian's, or Primary Caregiver's consent, shall be on file with the administrative head of the school prior to the student participating in a practice, scrimmage, or game.

For any subsequent sports season in the school year, a limited reexamination shall be performed if any of the following circumstances exist: (1) the athlete has been treated for an injury during the preceding sports season, (2) the athlete has been out of school during the preceding sports season with an illness other than the usual minor upper respiratory or gastrointestinal issue, (3) an operation has been performed on the athlete during the preceding sports season, or the athlete has a remedial defect.

Medical coverage shall be provided pursuant to the District of Columbia Public School Nurse Assignment Act of 1987 (D.C. Law 7-45; D.C. Official Code § 38-621). Provisions shall be made for qualified a healthcare professional to be present at all interscholastic contest in which a member school participates. The host school shall provide this service. Failure to provide this service shall require the host school to forfeit the contest.

B. Medical Emergency Action Plan

1. Each school must develop and disseminate an athletic emergency action plan (AEAP) and procedures for treating and transporting an injured athlete. The following shall be included in the AEAP:
 - a. Each member school shall designate an individual to maintain compliance with AEAP development and dissemination.
 - b. The AEAP shall be specific to each site where athletic activity occurs including practices, scrimmages, competitions and conditioning sessions.
 - c. Each member school shall identify a chain of command for implementation of the AEAP at each site.
 - d. The AEAP shall be developed and coordinated with local EMS and local school officials. These individuals may include: school public safety officials, on site medical personnel or school medical staff and school administrators.
 - e. Each member school shall distribute the AEAP to all athletics staff members.
 - f. Identify location and availability of on-site emergency equipment.
 - g. Appropriate contact information for EMS.
 - h. The AEAP shall specify documentation actions that need to be taken post emergency and kept on record with the appropriate school designated personnel.
 - i. The AEAP shall be reviewed and rehearsed before the beginning of the first season practice by all parties involved.
 - j. Healthcare professionals who will provide medical coverage during games, practices, or other events shall be included.
 - k. The AEAP will be submitted to the DCSAA prior to the start of each season, i.e. August 1, November 1 and March 1. Any changes will be submitted to the DCSAA within 15 days.

- l. The DCSAA strongly recommends following the Anyone Can Save A Life program for development and implementation (anyonecansavealife.org/wcm/groups/mdtcom_sg/mdt/documents/documents/acsal_eap_guide.pdf).
 - m. Upon request the DCSAA will arrange for consultation and training for any member school
2. Member Schools without medical staff available shall:
- a. Use appropriate medical coverage.
 - b. Have a cell phone on hand.
 - c. Know your local emergency numbers.
 - d. Schedule breaks for hydration and cooling.
 - e. Provide ample recovery time in between practices.
 - f. Monitor weight loss.
 - g. Encourage adequate nutrition.
 - h. Have all necessary emergency materials already prepared prior to the need for them.

C. Collision and Contact Sports

Collision practices and competitions at all levels shall be attended by an athletic trainer or team physician. Contact practices and games must have an athletic trainer available on site. It is recommended that an athletic trainer be available for limited contact practices and games when possible. Extra consideration should be given to large-scale competitions (e.g. cross country meets, wrestling tournaments and basketball tournaments).

Collision sports are defined as sports in which the athletes purposefully hit or collide with each other or inanimate objects, including the ground, with great force (e.g. American football, rugby, ice hockey, men's lacrosse).

Contact sports are defined as sports that emphasize or require physical contact between players (e.g. basketball, soccer, wrestling, women's lacrosse).

Limited contact sports are defined as sports in which the rules are designed to prevent intentional or unintentional contact between players (e.g. volleyball, softball, baseball, track & field, tennis).

D. Concussion and Head injuries

The athletic rule as it pertains to concussions is supported by two governing bodies, the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the NFHS, Sports Medicine Advisory Committee and is in compliance with District of Columbia's Athletic Concussion Protection Act of 2011. Proper management of a concussion is the best form way to prevent serious injury. It is most important to prevent Second Impact Syndrome – a catastrophic increase in intracranial pressure which can result in massive brain swelling, herniation and/or death. This syndrome occurs in athletes up to 14 days post-concussion and when an athlete returns to competition prior to the complete resolution of initial symptoms.

Therefore, member schools are required to follow the following concussion protocol:

1. Any athlete removed from play for a suspected concussion must be evaluated by a qualified healthcare professional.
2. Following the injury, all concussions are evaluated by the athletic trainer and/or certified medical personnel and referred for further medical evaluation by a physician.
3. Before the athlete returns to play/competition, he/ she must have written permission from a qualified healthcare professional. The qualified health care professional must be a District of Columbia certified and licensed Medical Doctor, Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine or an Athletic Trainer.
4. Following the concussion, the student-athlete shall proceed as follows:
 - a. No physical activity; rest until asymptomatic for a minimum of 24 hours.

- b. Once asymptomatic, light aerobic exercise.
 - c. Progress from light aerobic exercise to moderate exercise.
 - d. Progress from moderate exercise to non- contact sport specific exercise.
 - e. Progress to full contact practice.
 - f. Any recurrence of concussive symptoms at any stage will restart the student-athlete's recovery process.
5. An athlete with two concussions per season should be removed from contact sports for the remainder of that season. In order to return to play a physician's approval is required.
 6. It is highly recommended that an athlete with a history of three or more concussions avoid contact sports. A physician's approval is required in order to participate.

Each school that does not have an appropriate qualified healthcare professional on staff must identify to the DCSAA a concussion point person who is responsible for following up on all concussion documentation and ensuring that the DCSAA approved concussion policy is adhered. No student-athlete returns to participation prior to:

1. The student-athlete receiving written clearance from a qualified healthcare professional;
2. Completion and documentation of the "Return To Play" protocol; and
3. Parental and/or legal guardian must sign a concussion awareness/instruction form.

E. Heat Illness

PREVENTION OF HEAT ILLNESS

A proper heat-acclimatization plan in secondary school athletic programs is essential to minimize the risk of exertional heat illness during the preseason practice period. Student-athletes should gradually increase exposure to hot and/or humid environmental conditions during a minimum period of 10 to 14 days. When an athlete undergoes a proper heat- acclimatization program, physiologic function, exercise heat tolerance and exercise performance are all enhanced.

Each exposure should involve a gradual increase in the intensity and duration of exercise and equipment worn until the exercise is comparable to that likely to occur in competition. When environmental conditions are extreme, training or competition should be held during a cooler time of day. Hydration should be maintained during training and acclimatization sessions.

Any practices or conditioning conducted before this time should not be considered a part of the heat- acclimatization period. The heat acclimatization period is designed for students on an individual basis. Days in which student-athletes do not practice due to a scheduled rest day, injury, illness or other reasons do not count towards the heat-acclimatization period.

RISK FACTORS FOR HEAT ILLNESS

1. Prior Episode of Heat Illness
 - a. Some individuals with a history of heat illness are at greater risk for recurrent heat illness.
2. Clothing and Equipment
 - a. Dry clothing and equipment absorb sweat and prevent evaporate heat loss.
 - b. Dark clothing produces radiant heat gain.
 - c. Bulky clothing, protective equipment can all increase body temperature, sweat loss and increase risk of heat illness.
3. Fitness Level
 - a. Physical training and improved cardiovascular fitness reduce the risk of a heat illness.
 - b. Individuals who are untrained are more susceptible to heat illness than are trained athletes.
4. Medications and Drugs
 - a. Amphetamines (including ADHD medications), ephedrine, synephrine, ma huang and other stimulants increase heat productions.
 - b. Diuretics can also produce dehydration.
 - c. Any athlete taking medication for ADHD should be monitored closely for signs and symptoms of heat illness.
5. Alcohol and caffeine
6. Obesity
 - a. Athletes with a higher body fat percentage are at an increased risk for heat illness, as fat does not allow the body to dissipate heat.
7. Sickle Cell Trait
 - a. Special precautions should be taken in hot and humid conditions for athletes with the sickle cell trait (reference Sickle Cell section on DCSAA website)
8. Increased Heat
 - a. Sweating is increased when the environmental temperature is increased. As sweat is lost, the chances of dehydration increases.
9. Increased Humidity
 - a. Evaporation is less effective at high humidity.
 - b. As humidity increases, perspiration evaporates less rapidly.
 - c. Heat loss by sweating can be dramatically impaired when the humidity is greater than 60%.

HEAT ILLNESS PRACTICE PRECAUTIONS

1. Schedule training sessions to avoid the hottest part of the day and to avoid radiant heating from direct sunlight, especially during heat- acclimatization.
2. The time period between 11 am and 3 pm is a blackout period in August during which no activities may be held outdoors or inside if not a temperature-regulated facility. On Code Orange and Code Red days this time period is extended to 6 pm.
3. Plan rest breaks to match the environmental conditions and the intensity of the activity.
4. Rest breaks should occur in the shade if possible and hydration during rest breaks should be encouraged. Allow sufficient time for all participants to access fluids and partake freely during the break. Allow a sufficient number of water breaks as well.
5. Minimize warm-up time when feasible and conduct warmup sessions in the shade when possible to minimize the radiant heat load in "high" or "very high" or "extreme or hazardous."

TYPES OF HEAT ILLNESSES

1. Muscle (Heat) Cramps

- Are often present in student-athletes who perform strenuous exercise in the heat. Conversely, cramps also occur in the absence of warm or hot conditions. Dehydration, diet poor in minerals and large losses of sodium and other electrolytes in sweat appear to increase the risk of severe, often whole-body, muscle cramps.
- Symptoms: increased thirst and increased sweating
- Treatment
 - Increased rest.
 - Increased prolonged stretching of involved muscle group.
 - Sodium replacement (i.e. salt tablet, Gatorade, salty snack, pickle juice).
 - For full body cramps the student-athlete should be transported to the hospital for intravenous fluids.

HEAT EXHAUSTION

A moderate illness characterized by the inability to sustain adequate cardiac output, resulting from strenuous physical exercise and environmental heat stress. Inherent needs to maintain blood pressure and essential organ function, combined with a loss of fluid due to acute dehydration, create a challenge the body cannot meet, especially if intense exercise were to continue.

Symptoms:

- Slightly elevated body core
- Dizziness
- Fatigue
- Pale or sweaty skin
- Decreased pulse rate
- Fainting

Treatment

- Begin active cooling (i.e. ice bags, ice baths, fan, etc.)
- Place in cool environment
- Active EMS if fainting or student-athlete core temperature is greater than 104°F
- Elevate legs
- Rehydrate

EXERTIONAL HEAT STROKE

A severe illness characterized by central nervous system (CNS) abnormalities and potentially tissue damage resulting from elevated body temperatures induced by strenuous physical exercise and increased environmental heat stress. Rectal temperature is greater than 104°F combined with altered mental status. This increased core temperature disrupts organ function.  MEDICAL EMERGENCY

Symptoms

- Dizziness
- Drowsiness
- Confusion
- Irritability
- Seizures
- Weakness (Tachycardia (100-120 beats/ min)
- Hypotension (Low Blood Pressure)
- Vomiting

Treatment: Cold water immersion

- To be appropriately prepared for this medical emergency all materials necessary for immediate treatment must be prepared prior to practice/ games and be immediately available and close in proximity.

- Cooling must begin immediately, prior to or concurrent with EMS activation.
- Rapid reduction in body core temperature is critical and must be accomplished through immersion in ice water.
 - If WBGT is under 65°F – Ice, water, towels in a cooler may be available
 - If WBGT is over 65°F – Ice, water, towels in a cooler shall be available
 - If WBGT is over 80°F – Cold water immersion tubs shall be available
- The principle of Cool First, Transport Second shall be utilized.
 - Cooling shall be done onsite and cease when the core body (rectal) temperature is under 103°F.
 - Once core body (rectal) temperature is below 103°F then transportation via EMS may commence.

EXERTIONAL HYPONATREMIA

Occurs when an athlete consumes more fluids than necessary and/or sodium lost in sweat is not adequately replaced. Sodium in the bloodstream can become diluted and cause cerebral or pulmonary edema. Hyponatremia is the low blood-sodium levels in a student-athlete, which normally happens during warm or hot weather.

Symptoms:

- Elevated Body-Core Temp (> 104° F)
- Nausea
- Vomiting
- Extremity swelling
- Confusion
- Seizures
- Coma
- Altered consciousness
- Weight gain

Treatments:

- For mild symptoms decrease fluid intake.
- For severe symptoms seek medical attention in order to receive intravenous electrolyte solutions and/or medications.

DEHYDRATION

Dehydration occurs when fluid loss (via sweat, urine, respiratory or GI tract) is greater than fluid intake (via drinking and food). Dehydration of 1 to 2% of body weight begins to compromise physiologic function and negatively influence performance. Dehydration of greater than 3% of body weight further disturbs physiologic function and increases an athlete's risk of developing an exertional heat illness (i.e. heat cramps, heat exhaustion, or heat stroke).

Signs of Dehydration:

- Dry mouth
- Thirst
- Irritability
- General Discomfort
- Headache
- Apathy
- Weakness
- Dizziness
- Cramps
- Chills
- Vomiting
- Nausea
- Excessive Fatigue

How to Check for Dehydration (at least two methods should be used):

- Urine Characteristics (least reliable) A urine chart should be displayed to provide athletes with examples:
 - Lemonade urine color to clear urine color = well-hydrated.
 - Regular amount of light colored urine = well-hydrated.
 - Apple juice urine color or darker = not hydrated.
 - Small amounts of dark urine = not hydrated.
- Weight Checks
 - Weight checks both pre and post- practice to monitor weight loss, to determine how much fluid should be replenished. Use of a written daily record is strongly recommended.
 - A loss of just 1-2% of body weight can negatively impact performance. A loss of 3% or more body weight can significantly increase the risk of exertional heat-related illness.
 - Athlete should be back to their weight before the beginning of their next practice.
- Refractometry
 - If readings fall within normal limits (hydrated), the student-athlete does not have to repeat the reading, unless a heat-related illness occurs.
 - If readings show student-athlete is dehydrated the athlete must be held from participation in heat and must subsequently produce a urine sample which indicates hydration on the following day prior to participation.

REHYDRATION

Rehydration is the optimal replacement of fluids and electrolytes in accordance with individual needs. Fluid intake should nearly approximate fluid losses. Athletes should personally establish and monitor fluid requirements and modify behavior to ensure optimal hydration status. For most exercising athletes, water is appropriate and sufficient for pre-hydration and rehydration. Water is quickly absorbed, well-tolerated, an excellent thirst quencher and cost-effective. Traditional sports drinks (i.e. Gatorade or Powerade) may provide additional benefit in the following general situations:

- Prolonged, continuous, or intermittent activity of greater than 45 minutes.
- Intense and/or continuous exertion.
- Repeated exertion.
- When multiple practices occur in one day in warm-to-hot conditions

- 80° F to 105° F and humid conditions.
- Wet Bulb Temperatures of 65°F – 89° F Athletes must drink before, during and after practice and games. For example:
 - An athlete should always drink when they are thirsty.
 - Drink 16 ounces of fluid 2 hours before physical activity.
 - Drink another 8-16 ounces 15 minutes before physical activity.
 - During physical activity, drink 4-8 ounces of fluid every 15 to 20 minutes.
 - After physical activity, drink 16- 20 ounces for every pound lost.

What Not to Drink During Exercise:

- Fruit juice with greater than 8% carbohydrates;
- Carbonated soda;
- Energy drinks;
- Iced tea;
- Coffee.

Information about dehydration should be available to all student-athletes, especially after a heat related illness.

HEAT AND HYDRATION TIPS

Athletes must begin practices and training activities adequately hydrated. Hydration should start before, during and after physical activity.

1
2		If your urine matches the colors 1, 2, or 3, you are properly hydrated .
3		Continue to consume fluids at the recommended amounts.
4		If your urine color is below the RED line, you are
5		DEHYDRATED and at risk for cramping and/or a heat illness!!
6		YOU NEED TO DRINK MORE WATER!
7

Recognize early signs of distress and developing exertional heat illness and promptly adjust activity and treat appropriately. First aid should not be delayed!!

Recognize more serious signs of exertional heat illness (clumsiness, stumbling, collapse, obvious behavioral changes and/or other central nervous system problems), immediately stop activity and promptly seek medical attention by activating the Emergency Medical System. On-site rapid cooling should begin immediately. The Emergency Action Plan should be activated immediately.

STEPS TO PREVENT HEAT ILLNESS DURING THE SUMMER MONTHS

1. Measure the WBGT when possible. If not, determine the heat index via internet. Re-measure several times throughout the event or practice.
2. Equipment check-utilize light colors, lightweight materials and sun-protection clothing.
3. Provide unlimited opportunities for hydration. Hydration should never be withheld as a punishment!
4. Body weight, refractometry, or urine colors should be monitored for dehydration. Monitor student-athletes who show signs of dehydration. If necessary student-athlete may be held from practice until rehydrated.
5. Assure proper acclimatization prior to high endurance/intensity exercise in heat.
6. If at all possible, practices should be attended by an athletic trainer or team physician who is prepared to manage heat-related emergencies.

F. Precautions Against the Transmission of Blood-Borne Pathogens

School personnel and student-athletes must comply with the following procedures to avoid the transmission of blood borne pathogens:

1. Before competing, cover any open wound.
2. Whenever possible, athletes should treat and cover their own wounds.
3. When rendering first aid to others, wear protective gloves at any time blood, body fluid containing visible blood, open wounds, or mucous membranes are involved.
4. If an individual gets someone else's blood or other body fluid containing visible blood on his/her skin, the area should be washed with a solution known to inactivate blood-borne pathogens.
5. If blood or other body fluids containing visible blood are present during practice or competition, activity should be halted and the injured athlete(s) given proper attention. Any contaminated surfaces should be cleaned.
6. Wash your hands with soap and water immediately after exposure to blood or other body fluid.
7. Do not use common towels to clean surfaces contaminated with blood or other body fluid containing blood.
8. Wash all soiled uniforms, towels, etc. in warm or hot, soapy, water.
9. In general, use good hygienic practices and wipe down shared equipment.
10. Member LEAs and Schools should have equipment inspection policy and maintain an equipment maintenance record.

G. COVID-19

1. All student-athletes must receive a full course of vaccination against COVID-19 to participate in athletics unless the student has received a medical or religious exemption.
2. Failure to receive a full course of vaccination or exemption will make a student-athlete ineligible to participate in a DCSAA-sanctioned competition.
3. All exemptions are reviewed and approved by the LEA.

XII. POLICY POSITIONS

A. Gender Equity

TITLE IX

Gender equity in participation for females is important to high school athletic programs and required under federal law. Female student-athletes must have participation opportunities that male student-athletes enjoy. All member LEAs and schools should have policies for increasing female participation in sports. The DCSAA is committed to ensuring that member schools adhere to 20 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq. (Title IX) and D.C. Official Code § 38-841.01 et seq. requirements concerning equal access to resources and protection against sexual harassment.

MEMBERSHIP ON COED TEAMS

If a school sponsors a boys' team and a girls' team in a particular sport, boys shall participate on the boys' team and girls shall participate on the girls' team even if the teams compete during different seasons. Sports are considered to be the same when one set of NFHS Rules govern both genders.

If a school sponsors only a boys' team in a particular sport, girls shall be permitted to participate on the boys' team but if a school sponsors only a girls' team in a particular sport, boys shall not be permitted to participate on the girls' team. Notwithstanding the restrictions herein, a transgendered student, defined as a student whose gender identity differs from the student's assigned sex at birth, may be eligible to participate on a team other than their assigned sex at birth in accordance with a Member school policy that meets the minimum standards designated by the DCSAA. Coed teams shall participate only in the boys' state championship tournament or coed meet.

GENDER IDENTITY PARTICIPATION

For the purpose of this section the following definitions will be in place:

- Gender Expression: The manner in which people outwardly expresses their gender.
- Gender Identity: People's inner sense of their gender. Most people develop a gender identity that corresponds to their biological sex, but some do not.
- Gender-Specific Sport: Sports in which only one gender participates, or in which genders are separated for the same sport, e.g. girls basketball and boys basketball.
- Intersex: An umbrella term used for people born with reproductive or sexual anatomy and/or chromosome pattern that does not seem to fit the typical definition of male or female. Intersex may also be known as Difference of Sex Development and may not always be known at birth but may be revealed at any stage of a person's life.
- Non-Binary: Preferred umbrella term for all genders other than female/male or woman/man. Not all non- binary people identify as transgender and not all transgender people identify as non-binary.
- Transgender: A gender identity in which a person's inner sense of their gender does not correspond to their assigned biological sex.
- Transitioning – The time when a person begins living as the gender with which they identify rather than the gender they were assigned at birth, which often includes changing one's first name and dressing and grooming differently. Transition may or may not also include medical and legal aspects, including taking hormones, having surgery, or changing identity documents to reflect one's gender identity.

No person shall, on the basis of gender, be excluded from participating in, be denied the benefits of, or be treated differently from another person or otherwise be discriminated against in any interscholastic athletics.

Pursuant to 5-F DCMR § 102.6, the DCSAA allows for participation for all students in a manner that is consistent with their gender identity and/or expression regardless of the gender listed on the student's birth certificate. All students should have the opportunity to participate in DCSAA activities in a manner that is consistent with their gender identity, irrespective of the gender listed on a student's records or identification documents. For the purpose of interscholastic athletics only, the determination of a student's gender identity shall be made by the student-athlete's school after receiving notice from the student-athlete. Schools must allow students to participate in DCSAA activities in a manner that is consistent with their gender identity, including when accessing rest room and locker room facilities and accommodations when traveling with the team. Once the student has been granted eligibility to participate in interscholastic athletics consistent with his/her gender identity, the eligibility is granted for the duration of the student's participation and does not need to be renewed every sports season or school year. Concerning gender specific sports, a student-athlete is not permitted to switch between gender identity during the sports season or school year for the purpose of interscholastic athletics. For example, a student may not participate on the girls' cross country team and the boys' soccer team during the fall sports season. Student-athletes shall not be permitted to participate in gender specific sports that are different from their gender identity. For gender-specific sports, an intersex or non-binary student must choose to participate in either boys' or a girls' sports for an entire sports season. An intersex or non-binary student who wants to participate in a different gender-specific sport would need to wait until the following sports season to do so.

The DCSAA has established a set of criteria in which student-athletes are able to dispute challenges to their participation in a manner that is consistent with their gender identity by member schools. In the case where a member school does not permit a student to participate because of the student's gender identity or expression, or if a school disputes the participation of a student based on gender, the student may seek review of eligibility for participation or may appeal an eligibility decision under the procedures set forth below:

NOTICE TO THE SCHOOL: The student and/or parents, guardians and/or caregivers shall contact the school administrator and/or the school athletic director indicating that the student has a consistent gender identity different than the gender listed on the student's school registration records and that the student desires to participate in activities in a manner consistent with his/her gender identity. The school shall reconsider participation based on the statement of the guardian. The school staff should work closely with the student to assess the degree to which, if any, the guardian will be involved in the process and must consider the health, well-being and safety of the appealing student.

NOTICE TO THE DCSAA: If the school refuses to allow the student to participate, the school administrator shall contact the DCSAA Director, which will assign a facilitator who will assist the school and student in preparation and completion of a mediation process. If the mediation is not successful, the student has a right to appeal.

APPEAL: The student may seek a waiver from an Appeal Panel that is assembled by the Commission, under the waiver procedures to which the Panel will apply DC Human Rights Act standards for review. The Panel shall include a minimum of three of the following persons, one of whom must be from the DCSAA staff:

1. Physician, physician assistant or nurse practitioner with transgender health knowledge.
2. Psychiatrist, psychologist or licensed mental health professional with transgender health knowledge.
3. School administrator from a non-appealing school..
4. DCSAA staff member
5. Advocate familiar with transgender gender identity and gender expression competencies.

All documentation generated for the appeal process will remain confidential to protect the privacy of the student. The following documentation and information is required to proceed with the appeals process. All documentation and information shall be submitted directly to the DCSAA Director for Panel review:

1. Required: Documentation of student's consistent gender identification and a written request to participate in athletics according to his/her gender identity (e.g., affirmed written statements from student and/or school staff and/or parent/guardian/caregiver/ and/or health care provider).
2. Any other pertinent documentation or information.

GUIDELINES FOR REVIEW PROCESS: The Panel will convene following the waiver procedures and render a decision under those timelines.

All discussions, documents and information at all levels of the process either by a member school, appeals panel and/or DCSAA shall be kept confidential unless consent is granted by the student or the student and his/her family.

B. EEO

The DCSAA is committed to promoting equal access and opportunity and to providing reasonable accommodations for all student-athletes who desire to participate in interscholastic athletics.

C. Bullying and Hazing

The DCSAA prohibits harassment, bullying and hazing based on any of the following actual or perceived traits or characteristics: age, color, creed, national origin, race, religion, marital status, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, physical attributes, physical or mental ability or disability, ancestry, political party preference, political belief, socioeconomic status, or familial status by student-athletes, member school staff and officials, and is committed to providing all students with a safe and civil school environment in which all members of the school community are treated with dignity and respect.
