Coach Lambert has been the head baseball coach at Saratoga Central Catholic for 32 years. He was hired in 1988 as the youngest head baseball coach in NYS (22 years old). Coach Lambert took over a struggling program that was winless the year before and had only 2 winning seasons in the past 15 years. In 3 years the Saints program proceeded to win 3 consecutive league championships. The Saratoga Central Catholic Baseball program is now regarded as one of the top programs in NYS. Coach Lambert's teams have won 15 league championships, 5 sectional and 3 regional championships. His 2000 team led by former MLB player Tim Stauffer went 27-2 winning 26 consecutive games and advanced to the NYS championship game losing in 9 innings to Falconer HS out of Buffalo. To date Coach Lambert's career record is 546-186 (.745 winning %) including a 45-27 (.625%) in the post season. In 2010 Coach Lambert was named Diamond Sports Regional Coach of the Year. He is a member of the NYS Baseball Hall of Fame as well as the City of Saratoga Springs and St. Peter's/Saratoga Catholic Hall of Fame.

Coach Long has been the head assistant coach at Saratoga Central Catholic for 14 years having coached at the modified, JV and Varsity levels. Coach Lambert credits Coach Long for much of the Saints hitting success over the years. "With a very simple approach to the art of hitting Coach Long has made the Saints an offensive force every year". He has been the head coach for the Saratoga Stampede American Legion Programs for 10 years. Coach Long has directed the team to NYS championships in 2009, 2010 and 2012. He was an All-American at Union College and played minor league baseball in the Yankee organization until injuries ended his playing career. His love and passion of the game come from his family. Coach Long's grandfather was a barnstorming teammate of Bath Ruth and his father Dale Long, Sr. played in the MLB for 11 years in the 1950 and 60s. Dale Long, Sr. still holds the record for home runs in consecutive games with 8, tied with Don Mattingly and Ken Griffey, Jr. Coach Long is inducted in to several Hall of Fames including the NYS Baseball and the Albany Twilight League Hall of Fame.
