

Charitable Policy for Financial Assistance

Purpose:

Chicagoland Pop Warner is committed to providing access to its services for all individuals, regardless of their financial circumstances. Our mission is to ensure that no one is denied services due to an inability to pay. This Charitable Policy outlines the process and guidelines for individuals who require financial assistance.

Eligibility Criteria:

1. Individuals or families who are experiencing financial hardship and cannot afford the full cost of services provided by Chicagoland Pop Warner are eligible to apply for financial assistance.
2. Applicants must demonstrate a genuine inability to afford the full cost of the services offered based on their financial circumstances.

Application Process:

1. The applicant must complete a financial assistance application form, available upon request.
2. The application form will require details such as income, expenses, family size, and any other relevant financial information necessary to evaluate the request for assistance.
3. Supporting documentation may be required.

Evaluation of Applications:

1. All applications will be reviewed by the Financial Assistance Committee, which will assess each case individually and confidentially.
2. The committee will consider the financial information provided and may contact the applicant for additional information if required.
3. Decisions regarding the level of financial assistance will be based on the applicant's demonstrated need and available resources.

Confidentiality:

Chicagoland Pop Warner is committed to maintaining the confidentiality of all financial information provided by applicants. All information obtained during the financial assistance application process will be handled with the utmost sensitivity and only used for the purpose of evaluating the application.

Decision and Notification:

1. Applicants will be notified in writing of the decision regarding their financial assistance application.
2. If approved, the notification will specify the level of assistance granted and any additional steps required to access the services.

Appeals:

1. If an applicant disagrees with the decision made, they have the right to appeal by providing additional information or clarification within 15 days of receiving the decision.
2. The appeal will be reviewed by the Financial Assistance Committee, and the decision will be communicated to the applicant in writing.

Conclusion:

Chicagoland Pop Warner is committed to ensuring that individuals facing financial hardship have access to the services we provide. This Charitable Policy aims to maintain the integrity of our mission and support those in need within our community.

This policy is subject to periodic review and may be updated as necessary to ensure it aligns with the mission and goals of Chicagoland Pop Warner.
