GIANTS SWEEP IN "FRONT"!!!

LATER (3-1 1-0) - BANDITS (7-5 5-0) TAKE PAIR!!!

You really had to be there to believe it, to see the "Front" man at his very best, to be a part of the magic that engulfed the big ball park. To laugh, to cry, to jump, to scream. to clap, to cheer - to be a believer that this team was being "chosen" by a "Higher Authority" and guided so they could do no wrong - Nor could any situation be too impossible or difficult to somehow find a way out to the "Promised" victory. You had to be there if for nothing else to hear Norma "Front" in her final tune-up for next week's show down with Renee. (No horns allowed, Ladies..Please.) - Let's pick it up game 1 Top of inning number 6. 1 out Eddie Beyda At bat with Giants losing 2-1 -----BOOM! Double - - but will it be for naught??? As second out is recorded - - - enter Sammy Ashkenazi (Who's He??) With a timely run scoring 2 out double of his own to "knot" things at 2 all. - - - Bottom of sixth, Top of seventh - - - Bottom of seventh- - - - All pass with "Gooseeggs" on scoreboard and we go into first extra inning contest of year tied at 2 - - - Ditto in the zeroes for inning 8, and top of ninth --- now Here it comes --- bottome of Ninth Hustlers up Marc Dweck Leading off - - - the pitch - a long drive deep down the right field foul line that hugs the last two blades of grass in fair territory as Marco circles the bases and pulls into 3rd with his second 3-bagger of the day - - - This one in a lead-off role ----- Potential winning run on third 60 ft. away - Potential ways of getting him home A) Base Hit B) Ground ball out C) Fly out D) Overthrow E) other miscellaneous errors or lapses by defense ----- RESULT ----- F) None of the Above ----- After A "Giant" conference on mound the "Front" line strategy was set ----- Now batting Joe Harari

- No you dont Joey, Take your base First & third -----Up to the plate steps Mr. "Hit"man himself ----- Moshe Dwek ----- and he gets an intentional B.B. for his efforts --- this is it. Bases loaded with "Hustlers" and Moshe Dwek - No outs ----- infield in ----- outfield in, Mr. Front with the pitch to the next batter "Hostleman" --- Crack----- a screaming 1 hopper down the third base line, Alan Baily comes up with it cleanly and fires home to Elliot Dweck to shut down Marco at the plate ----- but they're not out of trouble yet as bases remain loaded, this time with only 1 out ----- Johnny Dayan the Batter, the pitch ----- Swung on and missed Strike one ----- and in a masterful combination of pitching and psyche the captain succesfully fans Johnny to the amazement of all on hand.----- Now some breathing room. Just one more out and the "Defense will hold" Infield and outfield drops back at regular depth ----- David Simhon the batter skies deep to J.B. who hauls it in for out number 3 and a jubilant Giant team comes running back in to bat, as a disbelieving, dejected, bewildered Hustler outfit is seen talking to themselves while slowly going back out to field. ----- You knew at that point it would soon be over and Giants wasted no time in sealing victory with key hits supplied by "Phumperello" and Elliot R. Dweck with gamer ----- Hustlers with runners on 2nd and 3rd threated in bottom of tenth but fall short as Elliot Mavorah puts away final fly ball of game to ice victory 4-2 ----- Game 2 and the sweep is completed with 4 big runs in bottom of sixth to pull out 6-3 victory ----- Davie "Phumpy" Assoulin who was 5 for 8 on day 1, and Richie Braha with go ahead, run producing long sac fly and glittering job at 2b were stand-outs ----- in other action; 1 hour and 57 minutes "LATER" and they had 2 victories. went from last to second, played in almost twice as many games as they had all year --- climbing up over .500 while surrendering a total of 1 run in the twin-bill -

A most impressive and productive afternoon for "Charlie's Angels" over Gemal's "Punchless" Pals ---- First victory led by a "Big" two run double by Sammy "K" scoring the Saka Boys who had singled ---- Final -- 3-1

Saka and Gemal again hooked up in a pitchers duel in game two----- a Marvin Saka lead off single sparked "Later" to wrap it up right "Now" in bottom of 7th and they did so in dramatic fashion on a 2-out line drive off the bat of Ricky Dweck, scoring Marvin for 1-0 "Icing" on sweep ----- only bright spot for Pals continues to be the super pitching job of Marty G. In a non-supported role ----- Relinquished but 16 runs in 7 games for a stingy 2.3 runs a game -- best in league ---- Albert Ades really finding the groove at 3b ---- Stars for Later: Charlie Saka with a super 2 Game performance on mound ----- Marvin Saka The new big guy on 1b with 2 going away over the shoulder catches to snuff out Rallys ----- Eddie Mishaan who continues with star-studded defensive play around second base bag clicking on 2 DP's ----- Bandits regroup to sweep R.V. Brothers increasing their record to 4-4 ----- JoJo Heiney's Booming 2 run Triple
- - - - Eddie Grazi's clutch double and big 10th inning leadoff triple by Joel Nasar gave Bandits 7-5 extra inning, come from behind, first game victory. ----- Morty Hirshman tossed a 5-0 shutout in nightcap to "bleed" brothers ---- Fame and Bullies split a pair with Fame taking the opener 8-3 ----- Sammy Cohen the "other" first-rate young prospect in league continues to do it all offensively and defensively ---- David Cohen (Sammy's Pop) with timely big hits ----- Jeff Matut seemed to have scored every run for Fame --- with a great effort in batting Dept. Marty Miz could be found in the middle of every rally ----- Game 2 saw Buulies tally 4 big ones in bottom of sixth to eek out 6-5 victory and gain split on afternoon ----- Heroes included Gary Erani with a triple, Jackie Picciotto with an R.B.I. single, Moses Eastman with a sixth inning base hit, (After previously keeping his homer a Sunday string alive) Jack Hakim with a big 2 R.B.T. Triple and Sammy ("Wrist") Kassin (Formerly Sammy "Ribs") produces final run with a single.----- Long Shots looking more and more like "sure shots" extend their winning streak to 4 with a 4-2, 8-4 sweep of Magique - First game was won in 11th inning on an Elliot Betesh sac fly behind singles by "Blimp" Ashear and fielding of Morris chalom and David Betesh --- The Betesh kid (David) "Gunned" down several runners off base paths in twin-killing. ---- Dallas newcomer Stevie Sutton celebrated with a timely 3 for 4 game helping Dallas to a 4-2 first game win over Blue Flame --- Good efforts turned in by Elliott Kattan - Judah Eastman and Meno Dweck in offense Dept. ----- Some shabby "D" as in Dallas caused them to lose game 2 as Blue Flames behind 4 hit pitching of Jack Saka bounce back again to "Burn" Dallas 2 zip Bobby K. and Stevie Shalom back to back doubles produced second run after a Yogi single and three "Gift" bases by Dallas awarded Flames with their first score.-----

P.S. Other interesting Matchups in next week's Giant-Fame contests include Ex-Giant Marty Miz Facing his former Capt. for first time, Ditto Ex-Fame Joey Braha --- Elliot R. vs Brother-in-Law Eli --- Renee vs Sonia, and Ex-Giant turned Fame Sol Tawil....
