Hi all;

I wanted to give you all some figures from this weekend.

Income:

Membership	$40
Ski Pass Raffle	$132
Sun Valley Raffle	$94
Total Income	$266

Cost: $200

I personally thought it was a good event and gave us alot of exposure and we made a little money.

-Bob

Next is the updated attachment.

Attached is an excel file with four tabs of information: The updated calendar of events, set up items, volunteer schedule, and volunteer contact information.

Paul is coordinating with Michael and Ann to get the items from storage for booth set up.
Paul is coordinating with Bob and Kerry to get items back to storage.

We are selling extended 16 month club memberships good through October 31, 2011 for $20.

We are raffling a ski pass (of which there are two). This will be a Progressive Raffle for Ski Passes with the first drawing Dec 11th (Christmas Party) and the second on Dec 18th (ULLR Festival).

We are also raffling ski club event/trip for two to Sun Valley January 7-9. The trip includes deluxe motor coach transportation for two, two full days of skiing, free bus service to and from the mountain, and lodging at Sun Valley. Ticket prices for the all raffles at this event is $1 per ticket, $5 for six tickets, $10 for 13 tickets.

Bob and Kerry are starting out the first shift and should bring $50 seed money.

I am working the last shift on Saturday and will take possession of all monies and membership forms.

I am also working the opening shift on Sunday and I will bring it all back to our booth.

Bob as he and Kerry are working the last shift of second day and so the Treasurer will end up with all monies.

Jeff could you bring your ski pole with the bell, that could be catchy to get people's attention? Fill free to wear ski clothing - goggles.....
