TEAM USA AT A GLANCE

The U.S. Under-18 Women’s World Championship roster is comprised of 25 players, including seven returners from the bronze medal-winning team that competed at the 2023 IIHF Women’s World Championship. Of the 25, 18 are newcomers representing the U.S. for the first time at a U18 WWC, with the roster comprising of three goaltenders, eight defenders and 14 forwards.

LEADERSHIP TRIO

Maggie Scannell (Wynantskill, N.Y.) is the captain of Team USA for the 2024 IIHF Under-18 Women’s World Championship. Josie St. Martin (Stillwater, Minn.) and Bella Fanale (Webster, N.Y.) will serve as alternate captains.

BEHIND THE BENCH

Liz Keady Norton head coach of the Dartmouth women’s ice hockey team, is serving as head coach of the U.S. Under-18 Women’s National Team for the first time, after serving as an assistant coach of the 2023 team. Brianna Decker, Meredith Roth and Zoe Hickel will serve as assistant coaches. Sanya Sandahl will be the goalie coach.

TEAM USA Success at U18 Women’s Worlds

The U.S. has medaled in every Under-18 Women’s World Championship ever staged. Since 2008, Team USA has won gold eight times, silver six times and bronze once.

ALL-TIME vs. Switzerland

The U.S. boasts a 43-3 all-time record in the preliminary round of the U18 WWC. The lone losses came in 2023, 2020 and 2017, all to Canada. The U.S. has gone a perfect 3-0 in the prelims 12 of 15 years, most recently at the 2022 championship.

RECORD BREAKERS

Team USA set the U18 Women’s World Championship record for fastest five goals by one team in a game after scoring five goals in 4:02 early in the third period against Slovakia on Sunday. The record, previously held by Sweden in 2009, was 6:04.

YOU GET A POINT AND YOU GET A POINT

Seven players recorded a multi-point game in the U18 WWC. The lone losses came in 2023, 2020 and 2017, all to Canada. The U.S. has gone a perfect 3-0 in the prelims 12 of 15 years, most recently at the 2022 championship.

TEAM USA’s SUCCESS at U18 WOMEN’S Worlds

The U.S. has medaled in every Under-18 Women’s World Championship ever staged. Since 2008, Team USA has won gold eight times, silver six times and bronze once.

PRE-CAMP IN KLOTEN

To help acclimate to the time change, Team USA hosted a week-long training camp in Kloten, Switzerland, about 15 minutes away from Zurich. The team spent the week bonding on and off the ice, and hosted Czechia in an exhibition game at Stimo Arena.

FIRST WIN FOR GM NICK BRYANT AND HC LIZ KADEY NORTON

Sunday’s win marked the first career victories for U.S. Under-18 Women’s National Team general manager Nick Bryant and head coach Liz Keady Norton, both who are in their first seasons in their respective roles.

THIRD TIME’S A CHARM
Forwards Maggie Scannell and Josie St. Martin return to the U.S. Under-18 Women’s National Team for the third season in a row. The pair most recently won bronze at the 2023 championship and silver at the 2022 championship. They are just the 16th and 17th player all-time in program history to represent the U.S. at the U18WWC three times.

SECOND GO AROUND
Five players from the 2023 edition of the U.S. Under-18 Women’s World Championship return for their second go around in 2024. Kendra Distad, Rose Dwyer, Bella Fanale, Megan Healy and Layla Hemp return for their second IIHF Under-18 Women’s World Championship, after helping lead the U.S. to a bronze in 2023.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK
18 of the 25 players on the roster are making their IIHF Under-18 Women’s World Championship debut at the 2024 tournament, including Caroline Averill, Margaret Averill, Haley Box, Molly Boyle, Kassidy Carmichael, Mary Derrenbacher, Alanna Devlin, Natalia Dilbone, Ellie Dimatos, Lauren Goldsworthy, Rachel Gorbatenko, Nora Hannan, Morgan McGathe, Jordyn Petrie, Macy Rasmussen, Taylor Senecal, Quinn Taylor and Ava Thomas.

TEN STATES REPRESENTED
Players on this year’s team hail from 10 different states from all around the country. Massachusetts and Minnesota each have seven players from there, while New York, Pennsylvania and Vermont have two. Illinois, Michigan, New Jersey, Nebraska and North Carolina have one representative.

FIRST PLAYERS FROM NEBRASKA AND NORTH CAROLINA
Forward Jordyn Petrie, who is from Lincoln, Nebraska is the first member of Team USA to represent the U.S. at the Under-18 Women’s World Championship from the state of Nebraska. Additionally, forward Mary Derrenbacher, who is from Raleigh, North Carolina, is the first North Carolina native to be at this tournament as well.

TWO AVERILLS
Forward Caroline Averill and defender Margaret Averill are sisters who are both members of the 2023 U.S. Under-18 Women’s National Team. They mark the first set of sisters who have been on the U.S. Under-18 Women’s National Team at the same time.

SISITR, SISTER
Two players on the 2024 team are guided by their older sisters who all competed on earlier editions of the U.S. Under-18 Women’s National Team. Defender Rose Dwyer, who is the younger sister of Grace Dwyer, who represented the U.S. in 2022. Defender Rachel Gorbatenko is the younger sister of Kelly Gorbatenko who also on the 2022 team. Goaltender Layla Hemp is the younger sister of Peyton Hemp, who was on the 2020 squad.

FIRST A PLAYER, NOW A COACH
Three members of the Team USA coaching staff played on a U.S. Under-18 Women’s National Team, and are now coaching the very team they got their international start on. Assistant coach Brianna Decker was on the 2009 and 2008 U.S. Under-18 Women’s National Team, winning two golds, while assistant coach Zoe Hickel took home silver as a member of the 2010 team. Team scout Haley Skarupa was Hickel’s teammate in 2010, and was also on the 2011 and 2012 teams.

AROUND USA HOCKEY

LIZ KEADY NORTON, HEAD COACH
Liz Keady Norton is serving as the head coach of the U.S. Under-18 Women’s National Team for the first time in 2024. She previously was an assistant coach for the 2023 U.S. Under-18 Women’s National Team that won a bronze medal at the 2023 IIHF Under-18 Women’s World Championship in Sweden.

She is currently in her third season as the head coach of the Dartmouth College women’s ice hockey team, a role she has held since 2021. In her first season at the helm, Keady Norton led the Big Green to its highest win total since 2015.

Prior to Dartmouth, she spent four seasons (2017-21) with the Boston University women’s ice hockey program. She also served as an assistant women’s ice hockey coach for two seasons at Harvard University (2015-17) and one year (2014-15) at Union College.

Keady Norton is a 2008 graduate of Princeton University where she was a four-year letter winner in women’s ice hockey. She represented the U.S. as a member of the 2004 Under-22 Select Team and spent the 2005-06 season with the U.S. Women’s National Team.

MEREDITH ROTH, ASSISTANT COACH
Meredith Roth is an assistant coach for the U.S. Under-18 Women’s National Team at the 2024 IIHF Under-18 Women’s World Championship, a role she previously held on the 2020 staff as well.

Roth currently serves as the associate head women’s ice hockey coach at Harvard University. She had previously served as the Associate Head Coach of College of the Holy Cross for five seasons.

As a player Roth represented the U.S. as a member of the U.S. Under-22 Select Team, as well as a member of the U.S. Women’s National Team in 2003.

BRIANNA DECKER, ASSISTANT COACH
Decker is returning to the coaching staff of the U.S. Under-18 Women’s National Team as an assistant coach after serving on the staff in 2023, 2020 and 2019, leading the team to three medals: bronze in 2023, gold in 2020 and silver in 2019.

The Dousman, Wis., native currently serves as the girls prep associate head coach and special advisor to the Shattuck-St. Mary’s Hockey Program, a role she has held since August 2022.

ZOE HICKEL, ASSISTANT COACH
Zoe Hickel makes her international coaching debut at the 2024 IIHF Under-18 Women’s World Championship as an assistant coach.

Hickel spent the 2022 season as the manager of hockey programing and community relations for the Coachella Valley Firebirds, prior she spent two seasons (2020-22) as the assistant coach for the Ohio State Women’s Ice Hockey Team.

As a player, she helped lead Team USA to back-to-back IIHF Women’s World Championship titles in 2015 and 2016. She was also a part of the 2010 U.S. Under-18 Women’s National Team.

SANYA SANDAHL, GOALTENDING COACH
Sanda is returning as the goaltending coach for the 2024 U.S. Under-18 Women’s National Team, a role she first held in 2023.

Sanda is currently a goaltending coach at Aurora University a role she has held since the summer of 2023. She also serves as the girls hockey director for Team Illinois.

Prior, she served as an assistant coach at Augsburg University from 2011-2023, primarily assisting with the Auggie goalies.

The Duluth, Minn. native was a four-year letter winner for Cornell, playing in 54 games, with a .885 career save percentage.
