Head Coach Jim Jabir Fourth Season Nazareth College '84

Jim Jabir was named Florida Atlantic University's head women's basketball coach in April 2017. He joined the program as just the fifth head coach in the Owls' 37-year history. With a 503-435 overall record and 30 years as a head coach, Jabir is one of the nation's most experienced and winningest coaches.

Jabir reached a huge milestone in his coaching career during the 2019-20 season, earning his 500th career win. FAU took down in-state rival FIU in Miami after a 64-61 overtime victory to clinch the 500th feat. Jabir became the 74th women's collegiate basketball coach to achieve 500 wins and is also one of 36 active Division I women's basketball coaches with 500 or more victories.

During the 2019-20 season, Jabir led a squad consisting of 15 underclassmen. FAU took down former Sun Belt foe Little Rock (79-72) for the first time in school history after 10 previous meetings. In that game, Crystal Primm racked up a career-high 31 points and would go on to earn a nod to the Conference USA Second Team. Primm also became Jabir's first C-USA Player of the Week after she had a stellar three-game stretch. Primm ended the season sitting in the top-10 in C-USA in points per game (15.4) and rebounds per game (8.0), and was one of the best in the NCAA at getting to the free throw line, ending seventh in in attempts (214) and 29th in makes (137) in the country. Jabir was instrumental in the development of freshman standout Lotta Vehka-Aho. The Finland product was named C-USA Freshman of the Week twice during the season.

Other accomplishments celebrated include beating Charlotte for the first time since 2015 (65-44), sweeping FIU for the first time since 2016 and achieving FAU's 300th Division I victory. The Owls put up the third most 3-pointers in a season in program history (211), which was fourth in the conference, while tallying the fourth best free throw percentage in school history (71.7).

In 2018-19, Jabir welcomed nine newcomers to Paradise, including eight true freshmen - the most of any NCAA D I team in the country that year. Freshman Juliette Gauthier led the team in scoring, averaging 11.2 points per game, making her the second leading freshmen scorer in C-USA. Gauthier was one of just two C-USA freshmen to rank in the top 20 in the league in rebounding and top 25 in scoring. Freshman Amber Gaston also had an impressive year for the Owls, averaging 7.7 points per game and 4.5 rebounds for Jabir. She shot 51 percent from the field, which was the best shooting percentage from a C-USA freshman.

In his first season at the helm of the FAU program, Jabir guided the Owls to a seventh-place finish in the conference, the program's best finish since joining the league in 2013. The nine-win record bump under his guidance was the fourth best turnaround in the country and the second best improvement under a coach in his/her first season with their respective programs. In just one season, Jabir and his staff put together one of the top rebounding teams in the country, averaging 42.3 boards per game. That rate was the highest in C-USA and 18th nationally. The team also led the conference in defensive rebounding, averaging 29 per game.

At the end of the season, the Owls finished in the top half of 11 different statistical categories in C-USA, including having the third highest scoring offense in the league despite losing over half of the offensive production from the previous season. FAU averaged 70.0 points per game in 2017-18, the highest by an Owl team since 2013-14 and up seven points from the previous season. The offensive production was thanks in part due to Jabir's trademark fast-paced offense and high volume three-point shooting. Under Jabir's coaching, senior Sasha Cedeño transformed her game to average 17.2 points per game and 8.0 rebounds per game. At the end of the season, Cedeño was honored as an All-Conference second team member.

They set the school-record for greatest number of wins in a season (28) since becoming a DI program in 1986. Jabir was named a finalist for the 2013 Naismith National Coach of the Year award after posting a career-high winning percentage (.903) with the sixth youngest team in the nation.

The Flyers continued their first and bests throughout the season; appearing for the first time in the AP and USA Today/ESPN Top 25 polls, and received votes in at least one of the polls the entire 20 weeks of the No. 2 seed in the conference tournament, its highest ever. In 2009, when defeating nationally-ranked Xavier in the quarterfinals behind a group of underclassmen, it was more than just "luck." The win marked a significant moment for a team and a program on the rise. At the time, the Flyers' 21-14 record in 2008-09 was the second-most wins since the program turned DI and UD finished the year with the most postseason individual honors ever.

Jabir was named the 2008 A-10 Coach of the Year after mentoring the Flyers to a modern-program record, 25-9. The Flyers went on to earn their second postseason berth in modern history with a trip to the WNIT.
