Fourth Sunday of Lent

Scripture Readings April 6: Is 43:16-21, Phil 3:8-14, Jn 8:1-11 (36)

Pastor's Message

Additional Eucharistic Ministers are needed, particularly for the Precious Blood, especially at Crucifixion. Recently, we have attempted to have Communion under both forms monthly and are unable to do so, due to not having enough ministers. Throughout the Easter season, I would like to provide this opportunity for people to be able to receive at all weekend Masses. If you are interested in assisting at the altar in this way, please contact the parish office. Thank you!

Men's Retreat / Conference – "Man of God" – 8:30am - 3:30pm Saturday, April 5, Church of the Resurrection, Rochester, MN. Mass begins the day with Bishop Barron, who will be giving the keynote address. It is an opportunity for men to develop a more intimate friendship with Jesus Christ and to increase the quality of life for men and their families. To assist, our Knights of Columbus council has graciously offered to reimburse $20 of the $60 fee. Please contact Bill Petersen for reimbursement.....bill@tsbm.com. Saint of the Week St. Isidore of Seville: "Prayer purifies us, reading instructs us. Both are good when both are possible. Otherwise, prayer is better than reading." These are the words of St. Isidore of Seville, patron of the internet, computer users, scholars, and scientists. St. Isidore valued reading, education and research and wrote many textbooks and a collection of encyclopedias. His love of learning came second only to his love of the faith. St. Isidore of Seville reminds us that it is good to be knowledgeable, but even better to be prayerful, for it is our prayer that helps us become Spirit-filled disciples serving others through God's love.

A Chaplin's Message: "To be a Knight of Columbus in Lent is like being one of the stars in the night sky. A recent showing of "Touched by an Angel" on TV said, "When it gets dark outside, the stars come out."

I really like that line. I have a dream that a Knight can be like stars at night. There can be something magical about being a Knight. A Knight can be a touchpoint with God, a person who touches the heart and soul of others by the way he lives and believes. A Knight can be a living image of Jesus Christ. A Knight can be exceptional in being ordinary, in living an ordinary life uncommonly well. A Knight, a common person, can inspire common people to live like another Christ. A Knight, a simple, humble man, can add beauty, grace and charm to everyday living. At night, stars shine. When it's dark in our lives, the Knight can be light, star light. The Knight can give clarity, purpose and dignity for darkened lives. Brother Knights, let's shine like the stars in the season of Lent." - Fr Tom Jennings
