2020 FALL LEAGUE PREVIEW

BY MICHAEL PARFITT - COLORADO FLAG FOOTBALL CORNER

After a crazy summer we welcome the Fall 2020 PF3 season. With so much going on this year, this season felt so far away but it has quickly come upon us. The Pro division teams are the same as last year, with exception of the Disciples dropping to the Comp division and FOE moving up to the Pro in their place. This year has been tumultuous to say the least. After the spring season was cancelled due to the Coronavirus, the League worked to get the go ahead to start playing, we scrambled to put together an open summer league. The summer league provided teams the opportunity to go against teams they normally don't get to see. CTS would go on to win their eighth PF3 championship by taking the Summer League. In the 36 team Best of the Best, the PF3 had seven teams make it into Sunday's Brackets. Those seven teams had a combined eight wins against out of state teams. The Huskers/Bros prevailed to be the Champions of the Best of the Best giving them back to back tournament wins.

The Pro division will be a dog fight once again. The summer champs, CTS, are looking for championship number nine and should have Duece Richardson back at QB. Of course the Huskers, with all their talent, will be looking to add to their trophy case. From the rumors I've heard, the Bros are picking up some former Swift players. If that's true, then the new players will only add to an already talented team. Menace, Rockers, Bulls, and Mile High Built all are very similar teams in that they make subtle moves here and there but mainly stick to their continuity and core for success. FOE will be making their second appearance in the Pro division.

In the Comp division the two teams heading in as the favorites are the Chiefs and VIP. Both teams had very good showings in the Best of the Best Tournament and in the Summer League. The next three teams are the Disciples, Kryptonite, Mile High Empire who could be in the championship discussion. The Disciples showed they can compete with the top dogs while Mile High Empire had a good-looking debut in the PF3 in the summer league. Kryptonite has a solid team and rumor has it they have a new franchise QB they are building around and you can never count out the Lightning to be in the running especially with that offense that is a pain to stop. Now we get to the two newcomers. I am not sure if Do Not Disturb and Mortal Kombat are teams from another league or if they are truly brand-new teams but here is sure to be a fair amount of growing pains for these two teams, and hopefully they can grow as the season goes on. This comp division is pretty stacked, even with only eight teams signing up.

LEAGUE NOTICES

CODE OF CONDUCT/FINE/PENALTIES REMINDER

REMINDER: It is on the team captains to make sure their players know the rules and follow them. There is absolutely NO FIGHTING. Doing so will result in HEAVY fines and suspensions. The rules are there for a reason. If fights happen then we may lose the rights to play on the amazing fields, we have. Also, after each game the sidelines will be checked to make sure the trash has been cleaned up. Fines will be implemented to teams that leave their sidelines trashed. So please clean up after yourselves and your fans. Let's have good sportsmanship and have a great season.

The PF₃ Code of Conduct/Suspensions/Fines/Penalties document can be found on our website www.premierflagfootball.com. Click on the Home tab, then select Documents.
