WHAT A START!!

ALL SPRING SPORTS were in action over the weekend with roughly 90% of our current teams participating! Baseball had Opening Day festivities, with the Phanatic joining in the fun and throwing out the first pitch to Commissioner Dan Greenberg. BIG THANKS to Aidan Robinson for leading the charge in getting the baseball fields ready and looking beautiful to start the season (despite all the rain last week).

Baseball Volunteer Opportunities

Fields Crew

Our Water Tower Fields shine best with lots of love. Grading, Shoveling, and Lining are a few of the many manual tasks involved in the daily & weekly maintenance schedule that spans the season. Ready to Help? Text Field Maintenance Coordinator Aidan (215) 301-4968

Snack Bar

Select a shift that matches your team's schedule or cover a shift while your player watches another team's game from the deck! All support for the CHYSC Volunteer Non-Profit Snack Bar is greatly appreciated. Thank you for using Sign Up Genius or email Snack Bar Coordinator Melissa mdagstudio@gmail.com

Highlights: Junior Baseball

Jr Baseball had the Phanatic stop by to help kick off Opening Day on Saturday, April 6th!

Following the Phanatic throwing out the first pitch, the Water Tower fields were busy all day as each of our Quickball, Rookie and Minors teams kicked off the 2024 Season.

Highlights: Girls Lacrosse

7th and 8th Grade Lacrosse:

First home game of the season ... a big 16-9 win over Upper Moreland! It was a chilly start to the game, but it didn't take long for the Lightning to warm up and work together for the win.

5th and 6th Grade Lacrosse:

The 5/6 girls lacrosse team had a great day on Saturday! We had a 13-10 win over Lower Bucks, even after two weeks of no practice. Highlights included great goalie saves, MANY shots on goal, and some beautiful work moving the ball up the field. Play Wissahickon next!

3rd and 4th Grade Lacrosse:

Hosted and played their first games of the season. The team got better as the day progressed and had a lot of fun.
