Offensive Player of the Game: Caleb Marinelli. 2 TDs and was all over the field making plays. Had a fantastic game. Can't say enough about Caleb's athletic ability. Great game!!

Defensive Player of the Game: Kason Hyder. Kason is our QB but he's also one of our best tacklers. In a game when we needed the D step up in a big way, they did. This was a hard award to choose btw them all but Hyder played one heck of a game. Made tackles on nearly every play.

Offensive Player of the Game: Grayson Ulatowski. Grayson had a standout game on a tough day for our offense. Grayson starts for us at Wide Receiver and also plays defensive tackle. While we struggled to get the running game going Grayson never stopped working on the outside. Throwing great block after great block. He also had one carry for us. Grayson attends Folsom Elementary.

Defensive Player of the Game: Blake Bowling. Blake was a rock for us this week in a tough physical loss. Blake starts for us at free safety and also plays fullback and Wide Receiver. Blake's understanding of the game and ability to cover ground helped him be involved in multiple pass break ups, contribute 3 tackles and 1 Interception. Blake attends Folsom Elementary.

Offensive Player of the Game: Jeremiah Boelscher. J "The Jail Breaker" Boelscher, broke through the defense, reaching to the sky with conviction, to make a big catch and run! The Jail Breakers hands are criminal! With sticky fingers like these you better watch out!

Defensive Player of the Game: Nathan Focht & Weston Langley. Nathan "The Mirage" Focht, has you seeing double! Oh wait, is there 2...? Who knows... What is known, is The Mirage brings force, speed and breaks through the line hitting so hard you see double! Sacking QBs, forcing fumbles is what this mystical wonder does best! Keep a close eye though... I am pretty sure I saw 2?!?!

Weston "The Leprechaun" Langley, doesn't need his lucky charms to protect his pot of gold! This outside linebacker, was backing up the offense, preventing big plays! It was a clinic he put on, that the elders surely took note of. Be wary of this one. Make a wrong move and he will have you seeing rainbows!

Offensive Player of the Game: Knox Hudson. Knox had a Sports Center top 10 high point catch across the middle of the field for a 27-yard touchdown reception and then stepped in to play over half the game at QB due to injuries executing textbook style pitches, handoffs, and QB keepers to continue building our lead and securing the victory.

Defensive Player of the Game: Julian Mirabal. Julian came up big with a tackle, and interception and a fumble recovery all while playing in a brace while his broken thumb heals.

Offensive Player of the Game: Colton Gayheart. It was a tough week for the offense against a much larger and faster opponent. Colton had a good week consistently playing and blocking until the whistle blew. He was also the best downfield blocker this week.

Defensive Player of the Game: Mark Stover. Mark did a good job this week holding down the middle of the line. Mark finished with 3 solo tackles this week and help limit Princeton's ability to run up the middle.
