Regrets:

Chris Harris, Blair Hillmer, Britt Callendar, Ryan Unique

The highlights of the meeting were as follows:

- Travis attended as a guest to review the officials program
  - Travis discussed the officials supervision and mandatory officials equipment and advised that that Officials supervisions have been going extremely well with good feedback from the younger officials
  - Discussed the officials manual and a officials sheet for each dressing room – Travis will review the manual and provide recommendations
- Chris attended on behalf of the Female Subcommittee
  - Have been planning Esso Fun Days – Lee sent them info from Dave Schultz, Cougars Coach, Sarah Hodges, Colleen Sostorics

- Committee is also including Peak Performance, Representatives from Martin School of Academy, Midget girls and Spirit of the Dragon. The committee has received an overwhelming response of 60 registrants
- Working on the Novice program and potential changes for 2019/2020 season – discussing options with Hockey Regina and LBMHA
- Board discussed options for the Bantam evaluations to address safety concerns around contact
- Maj reviewed the process for Provincials scheduling and reminded the Board to communicate to the Divisions that changes in the schedule may occur to accommodate the games. Will do our best to ensure the same team is not always impacted
- Financial budget review was conducted and is on track
- Reviewed the Call for AA Coaches that will go out this month
- Reviewed plans for the Volunteer Appreciation Night
