1. Finance -
 - A. G&A - $102,175.41 - Approved.

2. Report of Officers

A. The Executive Board had a meeting with the Township to discuss facilities and infrastructure issues as well as future plans. It was a productive meeting and the Township continues to want and appreciate the working partnership it has with the MRC.

B. Adam Ryan will discuss a potential July/August basketball league with the mayor and Evesham PD.

C. The MRC continues its work to upgrade security as well as safety equipment around all facilities.

3. Old Business

A. None

4. New Business

A. The Board is finishing up two new policies. The first is a policy where each commissioner will meet with the Board following the end of their season and give updates on the status and plans for their sport. The second is a public information and communications policy governing the roll-out of information from the organization as a whole.

B. Due to bookkeeping issues and requirements, there has been a change to the Financial Policy regarding requests for reimbursements and payment of bills. Fund requests now must be submitted for review and approval by 8:00am on Friday in order to be cut and available for distribution by the following Friday. Holidays may alter timing.

C. Reminders were given that policies exist for fundraising, reimbursements, sport policies and a code of conduct. All of these policies must be followed.

Meeting adjourned at 7:18 pm
