Beaver County Amateur Hockey Association Newsletter

Hello Badger families. With October in the books, the kids are wrapping up their first nine weeks in school, fogged up glass at the rink is behind us and the regular season has kicked off for 12U and up. Additionally, 10U has scheduled their regular season games, ADM is underway and Little Penguins Learn To Play has recently started. Hopefully your kids are now into their in-season routines, homework, practice and proper nutrition. That means snacks and sports drinks from the Puck Stop, right?

Save the Date

This month's Badger Board meeting is open to parents. Any member in good standing is welcome to attend. We look forward to seeing you upstairs at the rink Tuesday November 23rd @ 6PM.

Try Hockey for Free

USA Hockey's Try Hockey for Free day was this past Saturday. There was a huge turn out of kids that wanted to see what it is like to put on the gear and hit the ice.

Intro to Hockey

To follow the wave of excitement during Try Hockey for free we are offering a four week Introduction to Hockey program on Saturday mornings where the kids can use our gear, if needed, and start building their hockey skills. To learn more, or register your child, go to <https://beavercountybadgers.org>

Thank you to all of the coaches, kids and many volunteers that came out to help make USA Hockey's Try Hockey For Free day such a success!

Winners

Congratulations to the ADM families for putting together the top money making basket at the 2nd Annual Badgers Golf Outing.

The winning lottery ticket was sold by our PeeWee 1 team. Congratulations to the winning ticket holder.

Fundraising

The Beaver Badgers are selling Hoagies from J&J Enterprises once again this year to assist with player's ice fees! Spread the word and get your orders in to Michel Otto before the order due date of Friday November 12, 2021. All orders will be delivered to the rink on Monday November 22nd, in time for Thanksgiving. Players receive a $2 ice fee credit for each item sold.

Role Model

Though our kids have their on-ice heroes like Sidney Crosby, Patrick Kane and Connor McDavid there is no person with greater influence on a child than their parents. As we get going this season, please remember to set the right kind of example when it comes to sportsmanship in all aspects of the game. We've all seen videos of the crazy parents fighting in the stands at a youth hockey game. No one wants to be "that parent". Please adhere to our zero tolerance policy at <https://www.beavercountybadgers.org/code-of-conduct> and the signs posted at the rink

Angelina's Army

Please help us support the Mecchia family as Angelina battles a rare form of cancer through prayer and by participating in a raffle put together by some of the PeeWee parents. For more information, see page 3 of this newsletter.
