

Peter Edward Caristi Memorial Scholarship

Peter Caristi was a lifelong patriot who embodied teamwork in every facet of his life. Whether he was at home with his wife and family, working at the high school or local high school events, volunteering for numerous charitable ventures, or during his career in the Air Force, Peter and his actions defined teamwork. With his passing in April 2020, his family has, as one means to honor him, established the Peter Edward Caristi Memorial Scholarship to be awarded to a prospective secondary education student who exemplifies teamwork – either on or off a playing surface.

Eligibility – This opportunity is open to any prospective first year student of a secondary education within the New England Elite organization

Requirements – A two page essay focused on why teamwork is important to our nation and how you utilize teamwork to accomplish your goals must be submitted by May 18 to either of the following addresses:

Email – travisdemmons@yahoo.com

US Mail - Travis Demmons
 9 Bruschi Road
 Windham, ME, 04062

The submittal should include your essay, your name, your desired area of study, and your address.

The winner will be announced no later than June 30 and will receive a $1,000 check to apply to their educational costs.
