WEEK 2 GAME 1

COLORADO HUSKERS 53 DENVER ROCKERS 12

Another week, another weak showing from The Rockers. The Colorado Huskers took full advantage of the lackluster defense that the Rockers put on the field so far in the A league. Julian Banks was very efficient by completing 18 of the 19 passes and 8 touchdowns. Of those 18 passes, 7 went to Antoine Kelly, who took them for 273 yards and 5 touchdowns. Those are the kind of stats that got them the Co-Offensive players of the week. This game also had the defensive player of the week in David Bowen. Bowen came away with 5 flag pulls and 2 interceptions on the day. The Huskers will have a tougher defense to go against this week when they face the ultra-athletic Bros. As for the Rockers, they did start to get some offensive production, which they hope to build upon when they face the NoCo Bulls. With a slightly different offensive scheme the offensive line only allowed one sack all game. There was a yapping Pomeranian in the form of JuJu Hampton (shocker, I know) saying I needed to mention it, I will admit the sack allowed should be credited to myself. In my point of view it was just a good second effort play by Mario as he was on the ground at Pat Yanda's feet when he grabbed the flags. The precision the Rockers are known for is slowly making its way back, hopefully arriving before the season ends.

WEEK 2 GAME 2

CTS 14 THE BROS 00

The rivalry game of the week lived up to its billing on the field. Not a ton of offense from CTS or The Bros but the 14 points that did get put up, all came from CTS in the first half. One touchdown came from Deuce Richardson throwing to Jason Davis and the other Deuce ran in for himself. I know CTS always has a good defense but it seems like they are playing at a whole different level this season. One guy that is balling like no other is Mitch Colin. Not only has Mitch been one of Deuce's main targets on offense, he is getting key blocks and playing top notch defense. Don't get me wrong, The Bros did have some success moving the ball but couldn't quite get in the end zone. One bright spot for the Bros is they sacked Deuce three times, Koree Ross coming away with two of them. The Bros will see another high flying defense in the Huskers for week 3. We shall see how the Huskers can handle all that speed that the Bros will bring to the table. As for CTS the next potential victim is Colorado Menace. Seeing what Deuce can do against the always good Menace defense will be interesting but the match up worth watching is Takeyon Harrison Vs Donovan Haynes.

WEEK 2 GAME 3

NOCO BULLS 32 MILE HIGH BUILT 28

The game between the NoCo Bulls and Mile High Built turned into the game of the week. With absolutely no punts in the game and a score on every drive but the last one of the first half, it was truly a back and forth game until the very end. David Knighton threw for 265 yards and 3 touchdowns while Artie Barceló went 15 of 18 for 197 yards and 2 touchdowns passing. Artie also ran for 150 yards and 2 touchdowns. On defense, Martavius Foster tracked down Artie for 2 sacks. Both quarterbacks spread the ball out fairly evenly. This has been the most evenly matched game thus far this season. NoCo Bulls will try to get redemption for the loss they took in the Best of the Best tournament this summer at the hands of the Rockers. Some questions that will be answered on Sunday are: Will Mike Timm add to his league lead in sacks? Will NoCo Bulls offense be able to score at will like the other teams that have faced the Rockers? For Mile High Built they'll face off against the Denver Goats. On paper MHB is the more efficient team as the Goats haven't had that much offensive success yet.

WEEK 2 GAME 4

COLORADO MENACE 12 DENVER GOATS 06

The game between the Denver Goats and Colorado Menace was the least exciting game of the week. It wasn't the teams that made for lack of excitement but the lackluster offensive performance for both teams. Trevor Okamoto of Menace was only 5 for 12 that accounted for 96 yards through the air. Two of those receptions did go for scores that helped get Menace the win over the Goats. The Goats did tie the game at 6 in the second half. Unfortunately for them, an interception from Brandon Cummings gave Menace the ball in good field position. Trevor capitalized by throwing a quick slant to Jess Riley for the go ahead touchdown. Big time players step up in big time situations and that's just what Donovan Haynes did by getting his second sack of the day to end the game. Those two sacks have Donovan tied with Mike Timm of NoCo Bulls for the league lead in sacks. The main question for Menace going into week three will be can the offense put some points up against CTS's defense? The Goats will need to figure out how to contain Artie and that MHB offense.

WEEK 2 GAME 5

OILERS 25 SUDDEN IMPACT 19

We started week two with Sudden Impact taking on the Oilers. Matching up very well, these two teams came down to the wire. The day started off with Sudden Impact getting an interception and then punching it in for 6. Even with some trouble with snaps the Oilers were able to get it in the end zone a couple of times. They ended up getting the snaps under control in the second half but Sudden Impact started to make a comeback. The Oilers were able to run out the clock with a little over a min to get the 25 to 19 win. The Oilers will take on the semi pro team Sharks in week 3. The Oilers have an upper hand in the flag game, but this Sharks team is very athletically gifted. Sudden Impact will take on a familiar foe in the Denver Lightning. Last season Sudden Impact came away with the 39 to 32 win, can they do it again?

KRYPTONITE 14 EAGLES 06

Kryptonite revealed some spiffy new uniforms while going up against the Eagles. Kryptonite is showcasing one of the top defenses in B league. They still need to get some things going on offense in order to compete for the championship. This game was all knotted up at zero before the half and the first score didn't come until a punt return for a touchdown from Blake Hughes of Kryptonite. The Eagles finally got on the score board late in the second half but the score came a little too late. Both offenses moved the ball some but kept getting in their own way. After this win Kryptonite will take on the Mustangs but it won't be the same team that Kryptonite is used to seeing. The Eagles will try to get their first win against a tough Swat team. That will be a tall task as Swat brings a huge line against a not so huge line.

MUSTANGS 19 OLD SCHOOL 00

Three words that you don't usually associate with each other are Mercy, Win, and Mustangs. You can now group those together as the Mustangs got a mercy shutout win against Old School. The new talent that Celestino Archuleta has acquired might just get the Mustangs back to the playoffs. In order for the Mustangs to do that they'll have to fix some issues on the O-line and D-line that they still have. They got on the score board by a nice catch and run from Kyrie Knolls. As for Old School they had a different QB than the first week. This QB did alright moving the ball a little but when he threw deep only ducks came out. It's looking like this Old School team might miss out of the playoffs if they don't step up their play. Old School will not have an easier go this coming week as they'll face the always formidable FOE. As stated before Mustangs will face their rival in Kryptonite so it should be a good game.

WEEK 2 GAME 8

DENVER LIGHTNING 20 FOE 14

Jalene Simpson got the scoring start for the Denver Lightning by making a nice grab in the back of the end zone. The Lightning had complete control in the first half of the game as they lead 20 to 7 at half. FOE came out giving the Lightning a little taste of their own medicine by running a spread offense. FOE tried to make a second half come-back but fell just short, losing 20 to 14. FOE had issues getting a ton going on offense but might be able to get things going against Old School. Denver Lightning are making a case for the best team in the B league as they have the top scoring offense and one of the top defenses. The game with Sudden Impact and Lightning is this week's game of the week to watch since both teams have good defenses.

SWAT 32 DENVER SHARKS 02

As the start of the last game drew near I was wondering if we'd have another forfeit since I did not see the Sharks on site. Eventually they did get six guys to start the game and after Swat took advantage and scored, the Sharks ended up getting more guys to trickle in. Swat was in firm control of this game from the start. The top units of Swat are no doubt their O and D lines. They came up with sack after sack while the Sharks tried to adjust to the flag game. There will be some growing pains as evident how the Sharks at times had either no pass rushers or just one trying to get Swats QB. Swat got a TD just before half to make the score 19 to 2. Those 2 points for the Sharks came from a returned extra point. Swat did not loosen up as they went on to win 32 to 2. The Sharks will not have an easy road as they try to learn the flag football game. They obviously have a ton of talent since they won their semi pro championship. As for Swat they'll have to try and contain Robbie Ford, the Eagles QB.
