Palm Sunday,

Scripture Readings April 20: Acts 10:34a, 37-43, Col 3:1-4 or Cor 5:6b-8, Jn 20:1-9 (42) or Lk 24:1-12 (41)

Pastor's Message

Palm Sunday: The triumphal tone of Jesus' entrance as the "King of Glory" takes a rapid and downward spiral with the Gospel proclamation of His passion/suffering. At Mass, today and on Good Friday, the Gospel is divided into many "parts" separating the different stories and observations from various perspectives. The music between these accounts provides time to reflect upon the scriptures.

Holy Thursday: Is the beginning of the Triduum/the Three Great Days of the Church year. In essence, there is no end to this Mass, for it flows into Good Friday, and culminates with the Easter Vigil. We will have the "Mandatum" / the "command to serve others" as we commemorate this by washing feet. You are invited to participate by having your feet washed on this night. The final moment of this liturgy is the procession with the Eucharist around the church to the altar of repose, reflecting on all that occurred the night in the garden of Gethsemane.

Good Friday: We gather and leave in silence, pondering the sacrificial death of the Lord. In Ezekiel it is written, "Our crimes and our sins weigh us down; we are rotting away because of them." The proclamation of the Gospel according to John is the key focus of our contemplation followed with a procession to venerate the cross/the crucified Christ.

Easter Vigil: This is the holiest night of the Church's year. Allow the mystery to wrap you in awe and wonder. We gather outside in darkness and the Easter fire is lit, symbolizing His resurrection. Christ bursts forth from the darkness of the tomb, and as a congregation, we enter the church with candles. In the second part of the liturgy, the Scriptures recap various stories of how God has constantly saved his people. We remember, as well, in our own individual lives the defining moments when God has come to our rescue. Moving into the third part of the liturgy, is the reception of Kevin Rosendahl and Brian Swedberg into full communion of the Church and the renewal of our Baptismal promises. Climaxing with the fourth part is the celebration of the Eucharist.

HappyEaster!

If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Theresa Von Arx at tvonarx@stpetershokah.org. You can choose how often it works for you to volunteer!

Additional Eucharistic Ministers are needed, particularly for the Precious Blood, especially at Crucifixion. We would like to provide this option more frequently at weekend Masses. If you are interested, please contact the parish office. Thank you!

The Use of Incense – During the Easter season we are using newly purchased incense for those with allergies. Psalm 141 states, "Let my prayer arise before you like incense." In addition to a sign of our prayers rising to God and his glory filling the Temple, it is a sign of God's protection. In the Book of Numbers, during a plague, Moses told Aaron to offer some incense to cover the people. Those on the side of Aaron surrounded by incense were saved, those who were not engulfed in the incense, died. (To be continued.)

KC Corner- The KC Tootsie Roll Drive to raise funds for people with Intellectual Disabilities is coming up Friday, 4/25 and Saturday, 4/26. Please consider helping again with this worthwhile event as we raised over $4,500 each of the last 2 years that was split between Able and Hiawatha Valley Mental Health. Knights: Please respond to the KC email on this topic you received this past Tuesday, 4/8 or contact Ron Petersen at 608-406-0380 to help fill the remaining time slots. Parishioners: Please visit your local businesses during this event to support the Knights in this effort. Thanks in advance for your support of this important fundraiser!

The April General Membership Meeting will be moved to 4/24 at 6PM, due to Holy Thursday obligations.

Join us for a 2-Day Pilgrimage with Fr. Evans to the Shrines of NE Wisconsin on June 17 and 18!

Ringling of the Bells during Mass – There are three times that bells are rung during the Eucharistic prayer. The first time, when they are rung just once and the priest is holding his hands over the bread and wine, as the priest prays that God will send down His Holy Spirit to change the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of His Son ("Epicicles").

The second and third times that the bells are rung (3 times each), are at the Words of Institution, often called the Words of Consecration. This is when the priest prays the words of Jesus himself found in the Gospel, as the elements become the actual Body and Blood of our Lord.
