COACH EDUCATION:

On behalf of Sask Sport, the SHSAA continues to request that every coach (head coach, associate coach, or assistant coach) involved with a school team complete the Respect in Sport for Activity Leaders on-line training program. Upon completion of the three hour course, each individual will be provided with a certificate number which schools are asked to enter into the coach information section of each team registration. Once the training has been completed, it does not have to be repeated in future years. When registering for the course, please select Saskatchewan High Schools Athletic Association as one of the sponsor groups along with any other sport groups you may be wishing to register with. Individuals that wish to recall their certification information can use the RiS validation tool, click on the link below and enter your name and birthdate.

CONCUSSION PROTOCOL:

Every coach involved in school sport needs to complete the on-line concussion course "Concussion in Sports - What you need to know". There is no cost to register and you complete the course through schoolcoach.ca. At the end of the course, each individual is provided with a printable certificate. The certificate number for each coach should be entered into the coach information section of each E-5.

An updated SHSAA Concussion Protocol including resources and information on how to access the on-line course can be found on the SHSAA Website at: http://www.shsaa.ca./page/show/965463-shsaa-concussion-protocol-and-educational-materials

SPORT ADVISORY GROUPS:

This will be the 7th year for SHSAA Sport Advisory Groups. Each group is chaired by a member of the Executive Council; most correspondence occurs electronically but some groups have made arrangements to meet in person once during the year. The process for finalizing the 2018 - 2019 Sport Advisory Groups has already begun but if you are interested in becoming a member of a Sport Advisory Group, please complete the registration form that is found on our website (https://shsaa.sportngin.com/register/form/348760507) - DUE DATE September 14, 2018.
