

Who are the Dynamos:

The Dynamos are an Elite team made up of players from the South Shore Conference home town programs.

Who can play on the Dynamos:

In order to be eligible to play for a Dynamos team, the player has to be on a town team that plays in the South Shore Conference.

Why play on the Dynamos:

Many players and parents struggle with having to decide between playing with their friends on your town team or playing club hockey. Dynamos gives you the ability to do both at a much cheaper price tag. Coaches of town teams struggle when the club players have game conflicts, many times having to cancel games because they do not have a goalie or enough players. Attendance at home town practices is usually lower which makes it more difficult for the team to come together. The South Shore Conference works to minimize any conflicts that may arise with scheduled Dynamo game or tournament. With less game conflicts you have fewer scenarios where players do not meet minimum game requirements to be eligible for playoffs.

Who will the Dynamos play against:

This past season the Dynamos played as an independent team (and will be the same in 2023-2024 season) and played and beat many of the club teams, like Bridgewater Bandits, Boch Blazers, Crimson, Cape Cod Seahawks, East Coast Thunder, Huskies, Jr. Terriers, Jr. Penguins, Mass Bay Chiefs, Providence Hockey Club, Vikings, Walpole Express, etc. Our teams also did very well in the tournaments they entered, many getting to the championship games and winning.

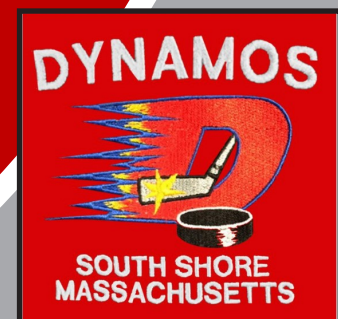

What does the season include: (short season will be less)

(In addition to your town team)

- ◆ At least 20 games
- ◆ At least 2 tournaments
- ◆ Skills every other week
- ◆ Practice every other week

What does it cost to play for Dynamos:

- ◆ Skater: $1,395 - Short Season: $875
- ◆ Goalie: $875 - Short Season: $450
- ◆ Alternate: $875 - Short Season: $450
