FRIDAY (Cont.)

Rollerskating Night, 5:00pm–8:00pm: We invite our rollerskating community to join us at Juxtaposition Art’s skatable art and performance plaza (1) (BYORollerskates), for an evening of socially distance skating to a live set by DJ Yonci. Urban Homework’s adjoining parking lot will be used for overflow.

SATURDAY 12:00pm–4:00pm

Juxtaposition Arts and ROHO Collective will each host physical events, though with limited attendance and social distancing. Juxtaposition Art’s plaza (1) will again be activated with a live set by DJ Mickey Breeze, and the gallery (2) will be open to 4 visitors at a time. VividBlackPaint will present a Pop-Up Circus in Juxtaposition Arts’ Pocket Park (3). Across the street, ROHO Collective will host a pop-up in McDonald’s parking lot (4), featuring community art murals, live music and spoken word, kid’s art therapy tent, and more.

Masks and social distancing required at all physical pop-ups.

“8:46” work in progress by Minneapolis Fair Students 1:00p: “8:46” is a series of short vignettes exploring some of the issues brought to the forefront by the murder of George Floyd at the hands of Minneapolis Police. The pieces are sometimes personal, imaginative, dramatic, comedic, but always expressive of our truth. They strive to capture where we as a collective are at this moment. Black Lives Matter.
