

BASEBALL OSHAWA

PARENTS CODE OF CONDUCT

- Parents will let the coach be the coach and will refrain from yelling directions to the players.
- If Parents have any concerns or issues after a game, they will not speak to the coaches in front of the players or approach the bench area during the game. Parents agree to set up a meeting with the coach to address any and all concerns in a professional manner.
- Parents will respect the rules of the game and will never argue with the officials.
- Parents will be a positive role model by supporting the coaching staff and respecting their decisions.
- Parents will have their child arrive on time for all games and practices and let the coach know in advance if a player will be absent, arriving late, or leaving early.
- Parents will follow the rules set out by the OLMBA, EOBA, and the OBA constitutions, By-laws and Policies, as well as the rules of baseball.
