COVID-19 policy and Waiver of liability

COVID-19, also known as Conavirus is a very contagious virus. It spreads easily from person to person contact. Federal state authorities recommend social distancing, facemasks and frequent washing of hands as a method of preventing the spread. Putty Hill Baseball in no way can guarantee that the spread of this virus will not occur through participation in indoor or outdoor baseball activities. Please follow the instructions of your coach. Social distance, wear facemask coverings and use hand sanitizer or wash your hands.

I understand the playing baseball involves the risk of injury or illness and due to the COVID-19 pandemic. I hereby certified that in consideration of permitting my child to play for the Putty Hill Panthers Baseball Association, a team of the Towson Baseball Club, Inc., that I am assuming all risk of injury and/or illness of my child during practice, games and team events. I hereby, for myself, my heirs, executors and administrators, waive and release any and all rights and claims for damages I have or may have in the future against said team, the Towson Baseball Club, Inc., its coaches, administrators and players for any and all injuries that my child might suffer in games or practices with the Putty Hill Panthers.
