Sunset League Schedule.....	20

Southern California's top amateur baseball league looks to continue its success in 2020. The Sunset Baseball League will have yet another action-packed season. Special precautions have been taken to ensure the safety of all athletes for the 2020 season, and we are thrilled to have baseball this summer.

The Sunset Baseball League has a competitive schedule with teams playing five league games per week. Players will be challenged throughout the season to prepare them for a possible future pro career. The environment is nurturing and the level of play is challenging. The Sunset Baseball league takes advantage of its geographic location as Southern California is known for some of the best baseball talent in the country. The teams of the SBL are located from Los Angeles to San Diego. The Sunset Baseball League will offer our players and fans great baseball, great weather, and a summer they will never forget.

The SBL schedule opens league play on Wednesday, July 1, 2020. Join us at a field near you!

Sunset Baseball fans can follow all the action on the league's official web site sunsetleaguebaseball.com. The website offers daily updated statistics, standings, game recaps, and video highlights for fans and media alike all season long.

The Inland Valley Pirates are one of the premiere collegiate baseball programs in Southern California.

Each and every year, Charlie Reynoso's mates take the program to the next level.

As they embark on their seventh season in club history, they've already thrived in the first six seasons. In 2014, the Pirates won the SCCBL regular season championship. They backed that up in 2015 with the program's first appearance in the NBC World Series in Wichita, Kansas establishing a national footprint. They've made the SBL playoffs in 2016 and 2017.

Players come from far and wide to play at Scolinos Field on the campus of Cal Poly Pomona. In fact, some schools represented have included Cal State Fullerton, Coppin State, Fordham, Hawaii, Houston Baptist, Lamar, Long Beach State, Louisiana Tech, Loyola Marymount, Oregon, Pepperdine, Texas Tech, UC Irvine and UC Riverside.

The Shepherds are a hard-working, ministry-based, group of young men who are striving to become leaders in whatever arena they are placed in. We will be playing 30 games during the summer and leading numerous camps in which we will teach not only the game of baseball, but the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Shepherds enter the Sunset Baseball League in 2019 with a great following and are sure to make some noise.
