

CENTRAL STATES DEVELOPMENTAL HOCKEY LEAGUE

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Central States Developmental Hockey League established the Scholarship Program for those graduating high school seniors who wish to further their education in an area of their personal interest. This program is open to all graduating seniors who have played in the Central States Developmental Hockey League Midget division for two years immediately preceding their freshman year of post high school education. The total of this scholarship fund will be $2,000. The scholarship monies will be made available to the chosen applicant over a two-year period. The monies can be used in any fashion. Proof of enrollment will be required for both years of the two-year payout period for payment.

Please complete the application on the following pages. In addition, a one page typed essay must be included on what lessons have been learned from participating in organized hockey and how these lessons can be applied in your future. Both the application and the essay must be submitted to be considered for the Scholarship Program. The completed application and essay must be emailed to CSDHL at treasurerCSDHL@gmail.com no later than April 1. Due to the volume of applications, no confirmation e-mails will be sent.
