RENO, Nev. – Reno 1868 FC starts rivalry week Saturday against Sacramento Republic FC in a heated Western Conference showdown at Greater Nevada Field.

Kickoff for the "Donner Pass Derby" match is slated for 7:15 p.m.

The last time these two clubs met, Reno came back from a 2-0 halftime deficit to capture a 3-2 win in Sacramento.

Reno scored all three goals in five minutes to remain unbeaten against its bitter rival.

This time, Reno (10-5-8, 38 points) looks to remain undefeated at Greater Nevada Field against Sacramento. Reno leads the all-time regular season series (3-0-1).

Reno is coming off a 3-3 draw on the road against Swope Park Rangers in a rain-soaked contest. Leading scorer Brian Brown recorded his 10th and 11th goals of the season in the draw.

Brown became Reno's second all-time leading scorer with 14 goals passing Antoine Hoppenot (13). He is now only behind fellow Jamaican and former Reno standout Dane Kelly (18 goals).

Reno sits in sixth in the West and is looking to get back to winning ways after recording a club-record 16-match unbeaten streak that was halted by Saint Louis FC on July 28, the last time Reno was at Greater Nevada Field.

Sacramento (12-7-7, 43 points) has lost back-to-back matches in contests against Saint Louis and LA Galaxy II.

Despite the two losses, Sacramento sits in the coveted fourth spot in the West. The top four teams in the USL's Eastern and Western conferences are guaranteed a home playoff spot at the end of the regular season.

Sacramento's Cameron Iwasa, who scored in the last meeting with Reno, leads the team with 11 goals on the year.

The first 1,868 fans through the gates at Greater Nevada Field will receive a free team poster courtesy of My21 TV and Sierra Donor Services.

AT A GLANCE: THE DONNER PASS DERBY

BY ALDO AMATO
Reno 1868 FC begins Rivalry Week at Greater Nevada Field with rival Sacramento Republic FC this Saturday at 7:15 p.m.

The two regional rivals have battled it out over the past two seasons with Reno holding a slight advantage in the series dubbed the “Donner Pass Derby” after the Donner Pass, which separates the two USL Western Conference powers.

This season, both Reno and Sacramento are again fighting for a spot in the USL Cup Playoffs. Both made it in 2017 and this Saturday’s final regular season contest between the clubs could prove crucial as we hit the final stretch of the season.

Here is a glance at the all-time series between Reno and Sacramento.

The first meeting between the two clubs in the regular season was June 10, 2017 at Greater Nevada Field. Reno 1868 FC completely dominated the match-up with 2017’s leading scorers Dane Kelly and Anotine Hoppenot recording a goal in the 2-0 win. The win was Reno’s fourth-straight home win of the season.

The second regular season meeting between the two clubs in 2017 was an absolute thriller. Just when Reno went down in the 15th minute after a goal from Sacramento’s Hayden Partain, Dane Kelly pulled Reno back two minutes later to even up the score at 1-1.

Five minute later, 2017 USL Rookie of the Year Chris Wehan provided Reno’s goal of the season off a free kick that put the game to bed at 2-1.

The final contest of 2017 was a back-and-forth affair that Reno thankfully hung onto. Sacramento striker Sammy Ochoa (now with Las Vegas Lights FC) began the scoring in the 19th minute to put Sacramento Republic FC up 1-0. Reno’s Chris Wehan evened up the scoring in the 41st minute to even things up at 1-1 headed into halftime.

Reno briefly grabbed the lead in the 51st minute thanks to a goal by Antoine Hoppenot. But Ochoa’s big night continued and the striker tied things up in the 67th minute at 2-2. Reno held on for the draw and remained undefeated in the regular season series against Sacramento.

Perhaps the greatest match in Reno 1868 FC’s history happened in the fourth regular season meeting between the clubs.

It was May 12, 2018 and it was not looking like Reno’s night early on. Goals by Sacramento’s Matjasic and Iwasa had Reno down 2-0 after the first half. Reno was facing one of its largest halftime deficits of the season.

But the second-half squad pulled off an incredible feat scoring three goals in five minutes in the second half. Earthquakes loanee Paul Marie started the comeback in the 57th minute after a beautiful streak into the middle of the field. Two minutes later, Brian Brown tied the match up at 2-2 off a Marie assist.

Just three minutes later in the 62nd minute, Mo Thiaw gave Reno the 3-2 lead burying a ball to the right of keeper Josh Cohen to give Reno arguably the best comeback win in club history.
