

Application for the Park High School Hall of Fame Scholarship

The Park High School Hall of Fame will award two Park High School senior athletes (one male and one female) the Park High School Hall of Fame Scholarship. The $1,500 scholarship is based on the student's academic achievement, school and community involvement, leadership roles, a coach's appraisal and a personal essay. Proof of enrollment at a college or university will be needed for dispersal of the award. Return your completed application to the Park High School Activities Office by April 5, 2024.

Applicant Appraisal Form

Have a current or former high school coach complete the attached appraisal form. Please note that the coach should return it to you in a seal envelope (with a signature over the seal).

Essay (at least 300 word, double spaced)

Provide an essay that discusses what life skills you have gained by being involved in athletics and how you will use these skills in the future. Reflect on what you might have missed if you had not been able to participate in sports.

*Please note that the committee highly encourages a well-written, meaningful essay. Traditional essay format with an introduction, several body paragraphs, and a conclusion.
