Administrative

DIBS

- A sign will be posted on the concession stand door directing volunteers to look for field supervisors out on the fields for direction. Some have been leaving when no one is found at the concession stand.
- A shed checklist will be created to allow volunteers to be a little more independent in helping with set up so once they have done it a couple times they do not have to ask the field supervisors for direction for each task.

Domestic Situation

- No contact order is in place between involved parties
- Letter sent to aggressor allowing her to be attending NYBA events again assuming she complies with the no contact order and the NYBA code of conduct.
- Steve will send a note to the teams involved on the day of the incident to advise them of the arrangement.

Concessions

- Food trucks will be donating 10% of proceeds each night to the NYBA
- Daniel proposed hiring a concessions supervisor for roughly 15 hours per week and a stipened of $1500. Motion by Megan; second by Lance; All in favor, none opposed.

Financial

- HR Derby bats were ordered by Ross - he will be reimbursed for the cost.
- Discussion on upcoming field expenses:
 - Bullpen tarps for Post - $200
 - Rubbar mallets (4-5)
